

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1594

The people in the canteen soon found out the truth of the matter. They were all extremely shocked!

What?

Their Gui Yuan sect and the Yin family had actually formed an alliance with the Netherworld Palace?

This, this, hasn't our Tian Yuan continent always been at odds with the Netherworld continent? Wouldn't this be making an enemy out of everyone in the Tian Yuan continent?

However, after discussing it for a while, they were forced to accept the truth. Those mighty figures had been captured. What was the use of their willingness? It was more important to work hard and keep their lives.

Finally, at night, Yun Chujiu returned to the dormitory. Lan Xiang was still cursing and swearing. Yun Chujiu's eyes darkened. When she turned around, she directly chopped her unconscious with a hand knife.

Yun chujiu opened the isolation array and quickly took out the sound transmission talisman. After sending her divine sense in, di Beiming's anxious voice came from inside, "Little Jiu, where are you? Have you already left the forbidden area?"

Yun chujiu briefly explained the matter, then said, "Prince Charming, quickly organize some people to come over. I will think of a way to save the hostages and destroy the protective array of the Gui Yuan sect."

"Little Jiu, remember not to be rash. Your safety is the most important thing. Since they want to use my father and the others as hostages, then they will not harm their lives. So don't force yourself. Xue Wuji and I will think of a way to save them."Di beiming warned.

"Prince Charming, don't worry. I cherish my life! I Won't Do Anything Reckless."Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

..

After Yun Chujiu put away the voice transmission talisman, she calculated that it would take about four days for the pretty boy and Wu Ji to rush here. What she needed to do first was to find out where they were locked up, and the location of the core of the sect-protecting array.

boxn ov el. c o m

It was not difficult to find out the location of the hostages. There would always be clues for the people who received the food. However, the core of the sect protection formation would probably take some effort.

Yun chujiu calculated for a while and got LAN Xiang onto the bed. Then, she fell asleep in a daze.

The next day, after Lan Xiang woke up, she shouted fiercely, “B * TCH, did you do something yesterday? Why did I suddenly pass out?”

Yun chujiu said hesitantly, “I don’t know what happened, but you suddenly passed out. Are you too tired?”

Lan Xiang stared at Yun Chujiu and felt that Yun chujiu would not have the courage to hit her. Perhaps she was really too tired?

Lan Xiang scolded a few more words, and the two of them washed up and went to the canteen to work.

Yun chujiu observed the disciples and maids who came to receive the meal and gathered some useful information.

“Damn it! Those people from the Netherworld Palace are really hard to please! Each of them is like a master who treats them with good food and drinks, yet they are still picky! Only senior brother Chu Hu has a good temper. If it were me, I would have turned hostile long ago!” A disciple who came to receive the meal said in dissatisfaction.

“Alright, stop complaining! What’s the use of saying this? Senior Brother Chu Hu didn’t say anything, so what’s the use of US being dissatisfied? Besides, they are guarding the important figures, so their status is naturally different.”

“Tch! Those big shots are just so-so, weren’t they all obediently captured? Just feeding them a few fasting pills every day, how miserable.”

... .

Yun Chujiu’s eyes flashed. It seemed that Di Linhan and the others were not locked together with the secret guards, and were being guarded by the people from the Hall of the Netherworld and Chu Hu. This gave her an opportunity to take advantage of, and she had to make a good plan.