

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1626

Yun Chujiu was stunned. To the Nether World Palace? Sheng nv? What did that mean?

Although Yun Chujiu was confused, she did not show it on her face. She said with a little disappointment, "Aunt, you are right. My appearance is indeed a little ordinary."

The woman saw that Yun Chujiu was a little disappointed and immediately felt a little guilty. She immediately added, "Miss Chujiu, my mouth is not good. Don't take it to heart. Maybe Sheng NV is not looking at my appearance!"

The woman continued to babble on and on. Yun chujiu also understood the general situation. A few days ago, the Netherworld Palace suddenly posted a notice. The Gist was that the SAINTESS felt that she was not feeling well and wanted to choose a successor. This was because the SAINTESS was the successor of Sheng NV.

All unmarried women under the age of twenty-five on the Netherworld continent could participate in the registration. After three rounds of testing, three winners would be selected. Then, the SAINTESS would choose one to be the successor to Sheng NV.

Yun chujiu could not help but feel puzzled. This was a good opportunity to enter the Netherworld Hall. Why didn't the Gigolo's insider tell him?

In fact, the insider had really reported this matter to di beiming, but di beiming felt that it would be easy to be exposed if he went in like this. He might as well go in as a maid and slowly plan it out, therefore, he did not tell Yun Chujia about the selection of the SAINTESS.

Yun Chujia felt that this opportunity was very good. As long as she became one of the three victors, she would have a direct chance to meet the Sheng NV. If she became the successor, then it would be even more awesome. Damn it, at that time, she would be able to directly rule the Netherworld continent, whoever was unconvinced would be killed. Haha, Just Thinking About It was very wonderful!

This fellow did not even think about how many young girls there were in the entire Netherworld continent. With her current appearance and spiritual power, how could she possibly win? Alright, this fellow had this kind of mysterious confidence!

It was a two-day and two-night journey from Sky Burning City to Forget Chuan City. In the middle, there were new passengers coming up one after another. Moreover, most of them were young girls. It was likely that they were all going to participate in the selection for the successor of Sheng NV.

There was a limited number of private rooms for flying spirit tools. Although some young girls had money, they could only come to the main hall. Thus, all sorts of disapproving voices came out.

“TSK! You even said that this river of forgetfulness trading company’s flying spirit tool is so high-end. I didn’t expect that there would only be a few private rooms. If I had known earlier, I would have asked my father to give me a flying spirit tool.”

“That’s right. The smell here is really unpleasant. If it wasn’t for the safety of the river of forgetfulness trading company’s Flying Spirit Tool, I wouldn’t have suffered like this!”

“Forget it, bear with it. Anyway, we will arrive at River of Forgetfulness City Tomorrow Morning!”

Yun chujiu secretly curled her lips. How could such a brainless person participate in the selection of Sheng NV? Unless the judges of the Netherworld Hall were blind.

Just as Yun Chujiu was complaining, someone walked up to her and said, “Hey, the three of you sit over there. We want this place!”

Yun chujiu looked up and saw a few arrogant women standing in front of her. The one who spoke was a woman with slender phoenix eyes. She was really not bad looking, but her tone was really not that good. She was bossy, it was as if she was instructing a servant.

The middle-aged woman saw that although these young women were not willing to be overbearing, they did not want to cause trouble. She said to Yun chujiu, “Miss Chujiu, since they like this place, let them have it. Let’s go over there.”

Yun chujia looked at the place that the woman pointed to. There were a few men sitting there, shouting and shouting. Naturally, it was not as quiet as this place, hence, Yun chujia said faintly, "Aunt, if there is anyone who comes first and comes later, let's sit here. It's still quieter here so that Little Rock can sleep well at night."
