

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1632

After Yun Chujiu returned to the house, she took out the Rouge powder she had bought and began to fiddle with it on her face. After repeating it a few times, she finally got a satisfactory result. Only then did she wash up and rest in satisfaction.

The next morning, after breakfast, the old man of the Heaven Lake was reading in the house when he heard Yun chujiu say from outside, "Uncle-master, can I go in?"

"Come in!"The old man thought to himself. What was this little girl doing here so early in the morning? Didn't she say that she was going to register today?

"Uncle-master, what do you think of my new clothes?"

The old man raised his head and was stunned. In front of him was a young girl dressed in white. Her facial features were exquisite, and she had an otherworldly aura. However, the young girl smiled.., however, there was a hint of cuteness and liveliness in her smile.

"Little, Little Jiu?"The Heaven Lake Old Man asked with some uncertainty.

"Uncle-master, my makeup skills are not bad, right? Do I have a good chance of passing the selection this time?"Yun Chujiu's voice also changed slightly. It was crisp with a hint of softness.

“Little Jiu, you have such a magical method. Why did you ask me for a disguise pill?”The Heaven Lake Old Man said after a moment of surprise.

“Uncle-master, you don’t know this. Firstly, my makeup technique is doomed if it meets with water. Secondly, if you look carefully, you can see my original facial features, so you can only deal with it temporarily. It’s better if you have a disguise pill.”

The old man from the Heaven Lake looked carefully and found that Yun Chujiu’s so-called makeup technique was to make the color of her skin whiter and more transparent. Her eyes were bigger, and her nose was firmer. Nothing else seemed to have changed, this makeup technique was really magical.

The Heaven Lake nodded. “With your current appearance, you are indeed more confident. However, don’t take your guard down. Safety First.”

While the two were talking, shopkeeper Yuan requested to see him outside.

After shopkeeper Yuan entered, he was shocked. He thought to himself, this ninth miss is really omnipotent. has she changed her face?

Manager Yuan calmed down and said, “Miss Chujiu, your identity has been fixed. Please take a look.”

Yun chujiu took it and took a look. Her new identity was an orphan girl in a small town not far from burning sky city. Her surname was also Lin and her name was Lin Yin. Her parents passed away due to illness when she was ten years old. Lin Yin went missing after that.

“Yes, that’s right. This name was changed to Lin Chujiu after a huge change in the family. However, this Lin Yin wouldn’t suddenly appear, right?” Yun Chujiu felt that this identity was not bad.

“Miss Chujiu, don’t worry. Our men accidentally saved this Lin Yin, so we know about this situation. But later on, this Lin Yin died in an accident, so there won’t be any problems.” “As for her appearance, it’s 50-60% similar to yours. Plus, she has changed eighteen times since she was a girl, so the people in the town can’t tell whether it’s real or fake.” “This information was previously investigated by us, including the appearance of her parents. As long as you know it, it’s fine,” manager Yuan said with certainty.

Yun chujiu nodded her head in satisfaction. The pretty boy’s subordinates were still very reliable.

After all the preparations were done, Yun Chujiu decided to go to the Nether World Palace to register.

The Nether World Palace was more than fifty miles away from the river of forgetfulness city, so Yun Chujiu naturally could not use the chopping board. Therefore, this guy rented a netherworld wind-blade donkey from the carriage store in the river of forgetfulness city and rode the donkey leisurely out of the river of forgetfulness city.

In the sky, young girls riding swords kept passing by. On the ground, there were also many young girls riding spirit beasts, but the only one riding a donkey was a weirdo like Yun Chujiu.

When Yun Chujiu heard those sneers, she didn't think much of it. TSK, a bunch of ignorant fools. Many unworldly experts rode little donkeys, such as Zhang Guolong, Guo Xiang, and Afanti..
