

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1647

The next morning, after the four of them had breakfast, Yun chujiu called the three of them together and said a few words with a smile.

The corners of Mo Wanwan and the other two's mouths twitched a little before they nodded their heads one after another.

During the posture training that day, the four members of the Earth group were still called out and criticized repeatedly. The other girls were filled with disdain in their hearts. It seemed that these four people were about to be eliminated.

Mo Wanwan and the other three were also dejected and looked like they had nothing left to live for.

However, when the maid who delivered the lunch took out the food, the four of them were instantly revived, as they fought over the food, they shouted, "Let me tell you, we're about to be eliminated anyway. We're not afraid of anything. If you dare to fight with us, we'll fight you to the death!"

"That's right, we're barefoot and we're not afraid of wearing shoes. We've turned our anger into appetite. If you're not afraid of being disfigured, then fight with us!"

Everyone was so angry that they wanted to fight with the Earth Group. However, when they thought about it, the four of them were going to be eliminated. They might really have done something drastic. For the sake of a mouthful of food, there was no need to fight with them to the death.

Therefore, everyone watched helplessly as the four people from the Earth group took half of the food into the house.

Although everyone was so angry that they gritted their teeth, they did not want to cause trouble. They snatched the remaining half of the food.

The situation on the third day was exactly the same as the situation on the second day. The four people from the Earth group were still frequently called out and criticized. Everyone gloated over the fact that the four of them were definitely going to be eliminated. There were four less competitors, this was the best thing that could happen.

At noon that day, the four members of the Earth Group were still like wolves, stealing half of the food.

While everyone was angry, they thought to themselves, since they were going to be eliminated tomorrow, we should just endure for one more day.

On the morning of the fourth day, everyone arrived at the center of the courtyard early in the morning. Yun Chujiu and the other three also arrived at the courtyard.

“Yo, aren’t these the four good-for-nothings from the Earth Group? Their ability to snatch food is pretty good, but unfortunately, their etiquette is really terrible!”

“Didn’t you see their group’s name? The earth group, Hahaha, they really are four country bumpkins! I guess they don’t even know what etiquette is.”

“They are really stupid and stupid. I think they will definitely be eliminated today!”

Yun Chujiu and the other three stood calmly as if they did not hear the discussions of the crowd. The crowd automatically understood that the four of them had lost all hope and knew that they would definitely be eliminated, so they were numb to it.

After a while, Zhao Mama entered the courtyard. There was a middle-aged woman beside her. It seemed that she was a little higher than Zhao Mama, because Zhao Mama was obviously half a step behind.

“This is Zhao Mama. Today, she will test your etiquette. Those who fail will be directly eliminated,” Zhao Mama said with a dark face.

“The test begins. The group will be the unit, starting from the group of gold,” ru Shuang shouted.

The four people from the group of gold lined up in a row and walked leisurely, displaying the etiquette they had learned.

After a moment, the four of them returned to their original positions and waited for Grandma Qi’s comments.

Grandma Qi said coldly, “Although you are still considered qualified, your performance also shows that you haven’t practiced well in the past three days. “You are all the legitimate daughters of big families and have received etiquette training since you were young. You just relied on your foundation and didn’t improve at all.”

The four members of the gold group had always been proud and arrogant. Although they did not dare to talk back, they had an unconvinced expression on their faces, nanny Qi snorted coldly. “Are you unconvinced? You know very well whether or not you have put in the effort to practice. Take care of yourselves! Next Batch!”
