

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1672

Yun chujiu cursed in her heart. F * ck, this was really not giving her a way out!

That demonic beast was not small at all. It did not even need to attack. As long as it rolled around in the swamp, she and you chi would be trapped in the swamp again. They would definitely die!

You Chi's expression also changed. "Miss Chuchu, what should we do? Why don't I paddle over and lure it away?"

"Although your self-sacrificing spirit makes me very touched, it's a pity that your method is useless. Don't waste your energy. I still have to do you a favor! This method is stupid!"

You Chi's expression stiffened. Why did he feel that the little fairy was about to turn dark? He must have thought too much. Miss Chuchu must be worried about him, so she said this in a moment of impatience.

At this time, the demonic beast had already swam over. Its huge body was more than ten Zhang Long, and its body was full of bumps. It was actually a netherworld swamp poisonous frog.

The Netherworld swamp poisonous frog's bulging eyes revealed a greedy light. It opened its big mouth and was about to swallow you chi in front of it. You Chi was about to collapse. The rules stated that it could only use the netherworld sword technique and the Azure falling sword technique, now that the sword could not fly, how could it attack?

If it used spiritual energy to attack, it would be bounced out of the array. Miss Chuchu would be eliminated! Forget it. If worst comes to worst, she would die. Anyway, she would be resurrected.

At this moment, a clear voice was heard shouting, "Oh my God! You Chi, what kind of Demon Beast is this? Why does it look so brave and mighty? I have never seen such a beautiful Demon Beast!"

You Chi was dumbfounded. Was Miss Chuchu scared crazy by a Demon Beast? What nonsense was she talking about? This netherworld swamp poisonous frog was almost the ugliest demon beast. Did you say that it was beautiful? Was there something wrong with your aesthetic judgment or was there something wrong with your brain?

The Netherworld swamp poisonous frog was about to swallow you chi, but when it heard Yun Chujiu's words, it couldn't help but be dumbfounded. Brave? Mighty? Good-looking? Was it referring to this frog? Could this frog be related to these words?

"You Chi, are you also impressed by the grace of this Divine Beast? What kind of divine beast is this? I've never seen or heard of it before!" Yun Chujiu said as she gave you chi a look.

You Chi vaguely understood Yun chujiu's meaning and stuttered, "This, this is the netherworld swamp poisonous frog, it's the most powerful demonic beast in the swamp."

“Oh my God, not only does this divine beast look mighty, but its spiritual power is also so high?”? It was really favored by Tian Dao. It was simply Tian Dao’s pet. Lord poisonous frog, are you really the overlord of this swamp?”Yun Chujiu asked with a face full of admiration.

The Netherworld swamp poisonous frog felt that it was a little floating and arrogantly croaked a few times.

“Oh my God! Divine Beast, your croaking is actually so beautiful? This is simply the sound of nature! Can you call out a few more times for me to hear?”Yun chujiu covered her mouth with her hand, with a shocked expression.

You Chi almost vomited! Miss Chuchu, you are too good at lying through your teeth. Although this netherworld swamp poisonous frog has not eaten us yet, can you change its mind with just a few good words from you?

The Netherworld swamp poisonous frog looked like it had shown mercy and started to croak. The loud sound made people’s Ears Buzz.

“Divine Beast, can you call me a few more times? I have never heard such a beautiful voice. Please fulfill my humble wish!”Yun Chujiu said flatteringly.

The vanity of the Netherworld swamp poisonous frog was greatly satisfied. It croaked loudly again.
