

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1685

"Chuchu, let's go and get lunch!" Mo Wanwan shouted.

"Okay! Okay!" Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and put the broken palace rules into her storage ring. Then, she hopped out to get lunch with Mo Wanwan and the others.

As usual, Yun Chujiu took out a few big basins to get lunch. The maid who was serving the food helped Yun Chujiu pack a lot of buns and said, "Miss Chujiu, today's buns are filled with meat. You will definitely like them."

Yun Chujiu's heart skipped a beat. "Aiyo, I like big buns filled with meat the most. Pack more for me!"

As expected, the serving maid placed a few more buns into Yun Chujiu's basin. Yun Chujiu returned to her dormitory with a smile.

After lunch, Yun chujiu lay on the bed and flipped through the palace rules. When Mo Wanwan and the other two saw that Yun Chujiu had finally embarked on the "Right path", they stopped paying attention to her and silently recited the palace rules of the Netherworld Palace.

As Yun Chujiu looked at it, she turned to lie on her side, blocking their line of sight. Then, she secretly took out something as thin as a Cicada's wing from the back cover of the palace rules. Yun chujiu did not look at it carefully and directly put it into her storage ring, then, she continued to pretend to recite the palace rules.

This fellow's little heart was pounding with excitement. Oh My God, there seemed to be a map on it. I'm Rich, I'm Rich! This Netherworld continent was really her blessed land!

Although Yun Chujiu's heart was like a cat's scratch, the four of them were inseparable. She did not have the chance to look at it alone, so she could only suppress her curiosity and prepare to see what was drawn on it in the future.

Two days later, Zheng Mama began to assess the results of everyone's recitation.

Reciting the palace rules was not a difficult task for these girls. Zheng Mama asked them to recite the palace rules to prevent them from doing nothing, so all of them passed the assessment of the palace rules.

After the test was over, Mei Mei put away the palace rules in everyone's hands. Yun chujiu also handed over the broken palace rules. However, this fellow had already glued the back cover with paste, no one would have thought that there was something hidden inside.

The next morning, everyone followed Zheng Mama to the same square as last time to participate in the third round of the test.

Vice Palace Master Liu and a few others were already waiting in the square. Yun chujiu had initially been complaining that vice palace master Liu had delayed the time of the test last time, but now that she had benefited from it, she couldn't wait for Vice Palace Master Liu to delay it again, who knows, she might even get some good stuff.

Vice Palace Master Liu continued to say some pleasantries, and then indicated that the test could begin.

"The third round of the test is very simple. Other than the Tian Dao, the Netherworld's spirit is the most respected person in the Netherworld continent, so the final three candidates will be decided by the Netherworld's spirit,"Zheng Mama said to everyone.

Yun Chujiu was puzzled. Let the Spirit of the Netherworld decide? How would they decide? Could it be that they were shouting at the sky?

Just as Yun Chujiu was puzzled, she heard a guard shouting, "Sheng NV is here!"

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and looked at Sheng nv who was approaching from afar. Last time in the Tian Fen Wilderness, Yun chujiu did not pay much attention to Sheng NV. Now that she looked carefully, although she was wearing a veil., but the eyes that were exposed were the same as those of the adoptive mother in memory, except that they were no longer affectionate and demure, but cold with a hint of melancholy, and even a hint of hatred.

Everyone bowed one after another, sheng nv lightly said: "No ceremony."

Yun chujiu was more sure that this Sheng nv was her foster mother, because the voice and memory of the voice is the same.

Beautiful Mother, your little jiu is here. It Won't be long before we can reunite as a family. This Netherworld continent will be ours. Haha, Just Thinking About It is so beautiful!
