

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1734

Yun chujiu stretched her neck and looked around again, she lowered her voice and said, "That Yi Mama is one of Vice Palace Master Liu's men. I don't know how she was discovered by the SAINTESS. The Saintess was very angry and angrily scolded that Yi Mama would be punished by the Netherworld's spirit like this!" "Who would have thought that Yi Mama would turn into ashes? Don't you think it's Strange?"

You Chi asked incredulously: "What? Directly turned into flying ash? This, how is this possible?"

Yun chujiu looked around again and said mysteriously, "I saw it with my own eyes. After the SAINTESS said those words, that Yi Mama was hit by something, and then her body turned into ashes."

Do you think the spirits of the dead don't like people who betray their masters? "Although Vice Palace Master Liu holds great power now, the SAINTESS is the true master of the Netherworld Palace. Will Vice Palace Master Liu also suffer retribution?" Sheng nv asked

You Chi and the other three could not help but feel a chill down their spines. "Miss Chu Chu, this... could it be that the SAINTESS used some kind of secret method?"

"At that time, I deliberately looked at the Saintess' expression. She seemed to be very surprised as well. She didn't say anything for a long time! Think about it, if she had such a method, wouldn't she have killed Vice Palace Master Liu Long Ago?" Sheng nv asked?

“I reckon that the spirit of the Netherworld was probably too lazy to care about these secular matters a few years ago. Now, seeing that Vice Palace Master Liu is becoming more and more outrageous, she made a move!”!

“I’m still very scared. Fortunately, I have a good relationship with the Saintess these few days and I don’t have any bad intentions. Otherwise, I would probably have been killed too!” Yun chujiu shivered and said with an expression of lingering fear.

You Chi and the other three were still somewhat skeptical, Yun chujiu said, “Of course, it’s also possible that this matter is just a coincidence. However, I don’t dare to go against the SAINTESS. If she takes the initiative to give me the Sheng NV, I will become the SAINTESS. If she doesn’t want the Sheng NV, I will leave the Netherworld Hall.”

You Chi hesitated for a moment and then said, “Miss Chujiu, I’m afraid that you can’t make the decision yourself. Vice Palace Master Liu obviously wants you to replace him. How can he let you leave the Netherworld Hall safely?”

Yun Chujiu’s eyes reddened, tears fell down her cheeks. “I know that even if I become the saint, I’ll still die. Even if I don’t become the saint, I’ll still die. Since that’s the case, I might as well leave a good reputation. Seventeen years later, I’ll still be a peerless beauty!”

You Chi and the other three..

Miss Chuchu, at this time, you still haven't forgotten to brag about yourself? There was no one else who could be so narcissistic!

Yun chujiu continued, "I'm telling you, people like Vice Palace Master Liu will be despised sooner or later. Since the spirit of the Netherworld can attack once, it can attack twice. Perhaps one day, vice palace master Liu will be burned to ashes. You guys should think of a way out as soon as possible."

You Chi and the other three were in a mess and didn't know what to say.

Yun chujiu sighed, "You guys can discuss it slowly. I'm going to die soon. I'm going to enjoy myself!" "Oh right, this is not a small matter. I'm Not Someone You Trust. Don't tell anyone. Even if you do, don't tell anyone about me. Otherwise, I will definitely die."

"Miss Chujiu, don't worry! We will not betray you. You have to be open-minded. There will always be a solution."

"Thank you very much. The Righteous Path of the Human World is full of vicissitudes. A good person like me will definitely live for a very, very long time! I will go and find the others. See You Later!" Yun chujiu wiped the Crocodile's tears with her sleeve and left.
