

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1741

“Who would have thought that I would accidentally find out that this bastard was the one who killed your grandfather? Although I wanted to avenge your grandfather, the power of the Netherworld Palace was already in his hands. I decided to think of a way to escape first and then find an opportunity to take revenge.

Liu Huanhua didn't think that I would know the truth, so the Netherworld Palace's security wasn't very tight at that time. I found an opportunity to escape. However, Liu Huanhua soon found out and sent many people to hunt me down. Later on, I really had no way out. I gritted my teeth and came to the border between the Netherworld and the Qing Xuan Continent. After using a secret technique, I entered the Qing Xuan Continent.

However, I never expected that the spiritual power of the people of the Netherworld continent would be greatly reduced when they arrived at the Qing Xuan Continent. My cultivation level was directly reduced to the fifth level of spirit enhancement. What was worse was that I was besieged by demonic beasts, although I relied on the power of the Netherworld and the defensive spirit tools on my body to save my life, I suffered severe injuries and lost my memory.

Fortunately, I met your father later on, and only then did I survive. If I hadn't rashly gone to the border, I wouldn't have been discovered by the people of the Netherworld Hall, and my family would still be living happily together. “This is all mother's fault. Xiao Jiu, you, will you resent mother?” Sheng nv looked at Yun chujiu nervously.

Yun chujiu smiled brightly. “Mother, what are you talking about? ! If it weren't for you and father picking me up back then, I would have died long ago.

“Besides, even if you and father aren’t by my side, I still have my grandfather and uncle. They are all very good to me. In the past, I was always fooling around and they didn’t dislike me. “So, mother, don’t blame yourself. You just have to love me in the future. I am very easy to satisfy. You just have to give me all the treasures of the Netherworld Palace.”

The corner of Sheng NV’s eyes twitched. “Little Jiu, we’re not short of money. Don’t be so greedy as a girl in the future.”

“Mother, of course, the more money, the better! You Can’t be reluctant to give it up, right? Don’t tell me you want to give me a younger brother to fight with me for the family property?”Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

“What nonsense are you talking about? ! How Rude!”Sheng NV’s face turned red and spat at Yun Chujiu.

“Hehe, mother, what’s there to be embarrassed about? “Although I’m greedy, I’m still willing to share some of my younger siblings with them “You and father haven’t moved for so many years. Is it because of my father’s health?”This fellow asked shamelessly.

Sheng nv didn’t expect her obedient little daughter to be so crooked. She poked her forehead with her hand and said, “Mind your own business! You Don’t have to worry about your father and me.”

“Mother, it’s better to have a prosperous family!”! What was there to be afraid of? My uncle-master’s medical skills are superb. If it’s because of your health, I’ll let him take a look at you. Also, is your original name Lin Biyun?”Yun chujiu never knew what embarrassment was, she said casually.

Sheng nv touched her forehead. Although she felt that Yun Chujiu was really rude, she couldn't bear to scold her when she thought of the suffering she had suffered for so many years, hence, she said, "Your father and I are both healthy. It's just that we don't have the fate of having children! I lost my memory back then, so I don't remember my real name. This Lin Biyun was also casually given to me by your father back then."

Yun chujiu slapped her thigh. "No wonder you never gave birth to a younger brother or sister for me. This is all my father's fault. What kind of name should I give him? Why did he choose such a name? Biyun, Biyun, isn't that birth control? "It's already birth control. It's weird that I can still have a child!"
