

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1762

Seeing that Vice Palace Master Liu was not afraid of boiling water, the Saintess was so angry that she gritted her teeth. She pulled out her sword and was about to kill him when Yun chujiu waved her hand at the SAINTESS. "Sheng nv!".

"Vice Palace Master Liu, you will definitely die. However, shouldn't you explain your relationship with the Divine Devil Hall?" Yun chujiu stared into Vice Palace Master Liu's eyes.

Vice Palace Master Liu's pupils constricted, but he quickly returned to normal. "What did you say? I don't understand!"

Yun Chujiu had a certain answer in her heart. "It's useless even if you deny it! Your subordinate, Protector Sun, once used the Divine Devil Hall's secret technique to escape. He is one of your people, so you must be in contact with the Divine Devil Hall.

"Thinking back to the time when you killed my grandfather, you were so anxious to invade the Tian Yuan continent. I'm afraid it was to find the eye of earth profound! "The reason why you didn't kill the Saintess was also to obtain the clues of the eye of Earth profound after obtaining the Netherworld Divine Hall. Am I right or Wrong?"

Vice Palace Master Liu looked at Yun Chujiu in disbelief. "You, you, how do you know? You are not human! You are not human!"

According to common sense, vice palace master Liu would not have done such a stupid thing, but he was really too surprised. How did Yun chujiu find out about such a secret?

“Not only do I know this, I also know that Protector Sun had already run away when he saw that the situation was bad! Liu Huanhua, Oh Liu Huanhua, why did you say that you were busy with this?”

“If you had not been obsessed with me back then, after you married my beautiful mother, wouldn’t the Netherworld Palace have been yours sooner or later? “You have been tormenting yourself all these years, but your spiritual power has not increased much, right?”

“The Divine Devil Hall has a pill that can increase spiritual power rapidly. Did they not give it to you? “This means that they did not treat you as one of their own at all. They just used you as a knife!”

Do you really think that you can ascend just because you found the eye of earth profound? In your dreams! I’m afraid that Protector Sun’s level in the Divine Devil Hall is higher than yours. Otherwise, why would he know the secret techniques of the Divine Devil Hall? You have been treated as a target for arrows, but their true confidants are safe and sound. Don’t you think you are extremely stupid?”

Most of Yun Chujiu’s words were nonsense. This was because people like vice palace master Liu would not be swayed by force or persuasion. It was useless to extort a confession by torture. Yun Chujiu had also thought of performing a soul search, but she was worried that Vice Palace Master Liu had been imprinted with a soul imprint. Even if she performed a soul search, she would not be able to find anything. Therefore, she could only get some information out of him if her psychological defense line collapsed.

When Vice Palace Master Liu Heard Yun Chujiu's words, his eyes turned red and he roared, "You're talking nonsense! You're talking nonsense! My lord would not lie to me! "As long as I find the eye of earth profound in the Tian Yuan continent and the Netherworld continent, I will ascend and my lifespan will be as long as the heavens!"

"Whether I am speaking nonsense or not, you know very well in your heart that you are just a chess piece. No, you are just a pawn!"Yun Chujiu said with a sneer.

Vice Palace Master Liu shook his head desperately. "You are lying to me! You are speaking nonsense! It will not happen! It will not happen!"

"Humph! If your Lord really takes you seriously, why didn't he come to save you? According to what I know, your Lord has the ability to tear through the void, so why did he let you become a prisoner?"Yun Chujiu said coldly.

"You're talking nonsense! You're talking nonsense!"Vice Palace Master Liu Didn't know how to refute other than this sentence, because even though he didn't want to believe it, he knew in his heart that what Yun Chujiu said was true. He really became an abandoned child, an abandoned child who was fooled by others!
