

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1764

Yun Chujiu held the jade medallion in her hand and said to everyone, "Everyone, I'm sure you've all heard that the Divine Devil Hall mentioned by Vice Palace Master Liu has very sinister intentions. Once they find the eye of earth profound, the spiritual energy of the Tian Yuan continent and the Netherworld continent will be depleted, and we will become ordinary people who are unable to cultivate. "It's a good thing that all of you are wise enough to work together to kill Vice Palace Master Liu. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable."

Yun Chujiu did not show off that she had made a great contribution. Instead, she put the credit on the Jin family and the members of the Netherworld Hall. Jin mantang and the others were naturally very satisfied. It seemed that Yun chujiu really had no designs on our Netherworld continent.

They did not know that Yun Chujiu was actually thinking in her heart, a bunch of idiots. Your Sheng NV is my mother, isn't hers mine? !

Jin mantang had just heard that the Lin Chuchu that his daughter mentioned was actually Yun chujiu from the Tianyuan continent, and the young man beside her was actually di beiming from the temple of Immortals. He had yet to recover from this truth.., when he heard Vice Palace Master Liu's words again, he was extremely shocked.

Jin mantang recovered from his shock and asked, "Miss Yun, it was all thanks to you and your excellency that we managed to resolve this disaster. I just wonder how you found out about the Divine Devil Temple?"

Yun chujiu sighed. "I'm sure all of you know that I was originally from the Azure Mystic Continent. The Divine Devil Hall had also extended their claws into the Azure Mystic Continent. The people of the Azure Mystic Continent had worked together to kill some of the people from the Divine Devil Hall.

"However, there were still two fish that escaped the net. One of them was even torn through the void and rescued. I had always been worried that the Divine Devil Hall would not let this matter rest, "I did not expect that they would also have designs on the Tian Yuan continent and the Netherworld Continent."

Jin mantang could not help but be very worried when he heard that. "Miss Yun, that protector sun that you mentioned just now has escaped. Will he make a comeback?"

Yun chujiu nodded. "Master Jin, you are right to be worried. Therefore, we can not immerse ourselves in the joy of victory. We have to do three things immediately.

"The first thing is to immediately spread public opinion and spread the news about what Vice Palace Master Liu Said and the incident at the Divine Devil Hall. Firstly, we must let everyone take precautions. Secondly, we must also prevent the guards at the border from being incited by protector sun.

"The second thing is that Si Tushi of the Netherworld Academy is a direct descendant of Vice Palace Master Liu. Perhaps he still has a part of his men. In order to prevent him from going to the front line to incite others, we must first capture him.

The third thing was that Sheng nv immediately gathered the leaders of the various major powers to come to the nether palace. She wanted to expose the truth of the matter to the public so as to avoid arousing unnecessary speculation.”

Jin mantang frowned. “Miss Yun, although your arrangements are very appropriate, what if those heads don’t believe what we say? After all, Vice Palace Master Liu is already dead. It would be difficult to convince the public with just a jade token. “Secondly, what if those people at the border really rebelled?”

Yun chujiu smiled faintly, she took out an item from her hand. “I’m afraid that I won’t be able to testify even if I die. That’s why I’ve already recorded what Vice Palace Master Liu said with the recording stone, not to mention that there are so many witnesses! “As for those people at the front line, although there are quite a number of them, without Vice Palace Master Liu as the pillar of support, coupled with the many days of suffering at the front line, I’m afraid that they’re already eager to return. As long as we do it properly, there won’t be any waves.”

Hearing Yun Chujiu’s words, Jin mantang could not help but sigh when he saw the recording stone in Yun Chujiu’s hand. This Yun Chujiu was really a monster. Not to mention anything else, just under such circumstances., she actually thought of using the recording stone to preserve the evidence. It was truly admirable.
