

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1765

Seeing that Jin Mantang and the others had no doubts, Yun Chujiu continued, "Since everyone has no doubts and the Netherworld Academy is not far from here, we will send a portion of our men to the Netherworld Academy to capture him."

Before Yun Chujiu could finish her sentence, an old voice was heard saying, "Little Jiu, there's no need to waste your energy. I've captured this old Brat for you!"

Following the voice, a person who was tied up was thrown in front of everyone. Everyone focused their eyes and saw that the person who was tied up was the Dean of the Netherworld Academy, Si Tushi.

"Uncle-master! How did you catch this old bastard?" The person who came was the old man of the Heavenly Lake. Yun Chujiu asked in surprise.

The old man of the Heavenly Lake smiled. "Originally, I wanted to help with Bei Ming and the others, but Bei Ming asked me to bring some people to keep an eye on the Netherworld Academy to prevent people from coming over to help. I didn't expect that this old fellow would sneak out of the Netherworld Academy and be caught red-handed by me."

Yun Chujiu was stunned at first, then she giggled at Bei Ming, "Prince Charming, you've gone astray! However, I like you even more now! Hehe!"

Although di beiming was already used to Yun Chujiu's shameless attitude, he was still very embarrassed in front of his future in-laws. If it wasn't for the mask on his face, he would have found a hole to hide in.

Yun Chujiu and the others began to interrogate Si Tushi again. Si Tushi was not as tough as Vice Palace Master Liu. He did not force him to tell them everything he knew.

With the list of direct descendants that Si Tushi had given them, Yun Chujiu and the others saved a lot of effort and began to deal with the aftermath.

It was not until the morning of the fifth day that the SAINTESS and Yun Zhangqing had the time to "Interrogate" di beiming. It was the morning of the Sheng NV.

Di beiming had been feeling uneasy for the past few days. Now that he heard that his future parents-in-law had summoned him, he felt uneasy.

"Greetings, uncle and Auntie." Di beiming bowed respectfully.

"En, sit down!" The SAINTESS said coldly.

Di beiming knew from her tone that he would not be able to get through today. He could only brace himself and sit on a chair at the side.

Just as the SAINTESS was about to begin her interrogation, someone jumped in from outside the house. “Beautiful mother, father, you guys are really biased! Why didn’t you call me when you called Brother Beiming? !”

The SAINTESS could not help but glare at Yun Chujiu. “Didn’t I ask you to deal with the matters of the Netherworld Hall? Why are you here?”

Yun chujiu giggled. “Mother, aren’t you asking the obvious? !”! “My Brother, Sheng NV, is a blockhead. He doesn’t know how to speak like me. I have to keep an eye on him. Otherwise, what if I say the wrong thing and anger you guys? “If you guys get angry, my heart will ache!”

The corner of the Saintess’ mouth twitched. She said it nicely, but she was afraid that they would make things difficult for di beiming! What an extrovert girl!

Originally, the SAINTESS and Yun Zhangqing were prepared to strike down di beiming’s “Arrogance” and help Yun chujiu look for trouble. However, with Yun Chujiu’s banter, it turned into a sweet love story between the two of them.

The SAINTESS and Yun Zhangqing felt a little flustered and had no choice but to give up on the “Interrogation”. The SAINTESS said, “Sheng NV, when the matter here has come to an end, let’s go back to Qing Xuan continent to see your grandfather.”

Hearing the Saintess' words, Yun Zhangqing felt a warmth in his heart and shook the Saintess' hand.

"Mother, I'm afraid that it will take some time before we can return to Qing Xuan Continent. "Because, when the matters on your side are more or less settled, I have to return to the Tian Yuan Academy first. Otherwise, I'm afraid I'll be expelled," Yun Chujiu said with a bitter face.
