

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1769

Yun Chujiu's hilarious banter finally managed to turn the Saint Lady's tears into laughter. Only then did she board the Flying Spirit Tool and leave the Hall of the netherworld.

Di beiming originally wanted to have a good time with Yun Chujiu, but Jin Zhi had been surrounding Yun chujiu and asking her about the Tianyuan continent. Yun Chujiu was so smug that she could not stop dancing and talking.

Di beiming frowned, "Little Jiu, I have something to talk to you about. An Feng often goes on missions outside, so he knows more. Just let him explain to Miss Jin."

Yun chujiu thought that di beiming really had something urgent, so she waved at an feng, "If that's the case, Little Madman, you can accompany Jin Zhi and have a chat!"

An Feng had no choice but to act as a docent again, preparing to explain some things about the Tianyuan continent to Jin Zhi.

"Prince Charming, why are you looking for me?" Yun chujiu followed di beiming to a room inside and asked curiously.

Di beiming put one hand on the door, and the other hand held Yun chujiu in front of him, and his lips fell down..

A thought flashed through Yun Chujiu's mind as she was dizzy. Oh My, I got knocked by the door!

After the two of them lingered for a while, di beiming said in a hoarse voice, "Little Jiu, marry me! We will get married after you graduate."

Yun Chujiu's thick-skinned face turned slightly red, "My, that hasn't come yet. Even if we get married, we can't have sex."

Di Beiming's face also turned red, "I didn't marry you to have sex with you. I will feel more at ease if I marry you as soon as possible."

Yun chujiu pursed her lips in her heart. What she said was not what she meant! If she didn't go back, could it be that they were going to kiss? !

Both of them felt a little embarrassed and didn't know what to say. Di beiming coughed dryly. "Oh right, did your mother tell you about the origin of that seed?"

“That seed is not my mother’s dowry. When my mother picked me up, I was wrapped in a small quilt. That seed was found inside the small quilt.” Yun Chujiu said with a frown, the clue was broken again. Could it be that the only way to get rid of the guai Cao was to ascend to a higher-level continent?

Di Beiming touched Yun Chujiu’s hair, “Little Jiu, you don’t have to worry too much. I should be able to ascend in three years or a year. When I reach a higher-level continent, I will definitely be able to help you find a way to get rid of the guai Cao.”

Hearing Di Beiming’s words, Yun Chujiu’s sense of urgency grew stronger. Damn it, she had to hurry up and cultivate. Otherwise, what if the little goblin from the higher level continent kidnapped her pretty boy? !

The two of them chatted for a while more before Yun Chujiu hopped off to look for Jin Zhi.

When Jin Zhi saw Yun Chujiu, she teased, “You’re finally willing to come out! You really forget your friends when you see them! Hurry up and continue telling me about Tian Yuan Academy.”

Yun Chujiu could not help but wonder, “Didn’t I ask an Feng to tell you about it? where is he?”

“Don’t mention it! That Crazy Kid’s story isn’t lively at all, and he often stammers. It’s not interesting at all, so I don’t need him to tell me. Little Jiu, your story is more lively and interesting!” Jin Zhi said with a look of disdain.

Yun chujiu was even more puzzled. An Feng was the most eloquent of the gigolo's underlings, so why was he stammering today? It shouldn't be! He must have been too tired recently.

Yun chujiu didn't think too much about it and started blabbering to Jin Zhi.

An Feng, who was in the corner, had a miserable look on his face as he slapped himself. Trash! What a trash! ! He usually didn't have the problem of stuttering. Why did he become a stutterer in front of Miss Jin Zhi? !
