

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1777

At this moment, it was already the afternoon of the second day outside the thatched cottage. There were still many people watching.

“Yun Chujiu has already been inside for a day and a half. Why is her score still zero?”

“Who knows? This Yun Chujiu is always different from the others. I wonder what she will do this time.”

Suddenly, everyone noticed that the heaven's Pride Hall was trembling violently. They were so scared that they hurriedly stepped back. Was the heaven's Pride Hall going to collapse? Why was it suddenly trembling?

At the same time, someone pointed at the small screen and exclaimed, “Oh my God! Look!”

The crowd was confused. They looked in the direction that the person pointed and saw that Yun Chujiu's points on the screen had turned into a red one trillion! !

“Oh my God! One trillion? What kind of joke is this? ! There must be something wrong with the pride of Heaven Hall!”

“Oh my God, What Did Yun Chujiu Do? ! She actually got a negative one trillion points?”

“The person ranked first only has a few hundred thousand points, and Yun Chujiu actually got a negative one trillion points. This means that she must have done something that made the weapon spirit of the Pride of Heaven List extremely angry!” Qi Ling said

“What could she have done to anger the prodigy roll so much? She was only challenging the trial inside. Even if she was insulting The Prodigy roll, The Prodigy roll shouldn’t be so angry, right?”

“I’m also very puzzled. I can only wait for Yun Chujiu to come out and ask. This Yun Chujiu is really a pervert. She could make such a big commotion just by challenging the prodigy roll.”

Then, what exactly happened in the prodigy roll?

Four hours ago.

Yun Chujiu's mind was wide open. She began to imagine the scene of the Star Wars. Although the illusory formation had created the scene of the Star Wars, the time it took was more than ten times more than the other scenes. Moreover, some parts of it were strange.

This was understandable. The illusory formation could only extract the scenes from Yun Chujiu's consciousness. However, Yun Chujiu was just imagining things. Naturally, many parts of her thoughts were not perfect, so the illusory formation had to perfect some of the flaws.

This time, the illusory formation was in trouble! Even those who repaired it could not tell which was ancient and which was modern. However, Yun Chujiu was very imaginative. In the end, she even thought of black holes, multidimensional space, and so on.

Then, there was no "Then". Yun chujiu heard a boom and the scene in front of her changed. She found herself in a palace.

There was a broken formation disk not far in front of Yun Chujiu. Fortunately, Yun Chujiu had many defensive spirit weapons on her, so she was not injured.

Yun chujiu jumped up and looked closer. The spirit stones in the formation core were all shattered, and even the formation leaves were blown up into pieces.

This fellow rubbed his chin and muttered, "Could it be that he has exploded in anger? isn't his endurance too weak? I still have many scenarios that I haven't thought of yet! For example, mecha, Aerial Base, the microscopic world..."

Before Yun Chujiu could finish her words, some of the remaining formation leaves had exploded once again.

"F * ck! Can the formation disk even turn into a corpse? I'll just die a quick death!"

Yun chujiu ridiculed as she looked around. This was probably the real heaven's Pride Hall, but she did not know what level was next.

Yun chujiu waited for a while, but the scene in front of her did not change. This fellow was puzzled. Could it be that what she was seeing now was still an illusion?
