

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1783

Yun chujiu continued, "Originally, Yesterday's old friend wanted to destroy this village. I was the one who pleaded for mercy on account of our past friendship. Otherwise, do you think you can still live until now? If you don't believe me, go to the village head and take a look at that big old locust tree!"

Immediately, a villager said, "There's no need to look. I saw it clearly last night. That thick old locust tree was directly struck by lightning and turned into charcoal!"

The villagers could not help but feel a chill down their backs. They looked at Yun Chujiu with respect.

The village chief was also a little suspicious, but when he thought of the three large tile-roofed houses..., he gritted his teeth. "HMPH! This is just a coincidence! If you're not a jinx, then why are the people in our village so unlucky one after another? Last month, Li Zhuzi broke his leg. Last month, Wang Tiesuo fell into a well. Ten days ago, Aunt Liu's house caught fire. Five days ago, carpenter Liu's youngest son died prematurely!"

"The world is unpredictable. There is a cause and effect. These things naturally happen for a reason. What does it have to do with me? According to the village chief, I even said that it was you who caused it!" Yun chujiu cursed in her heart, this was purely a crime that could not be blamed! You F * cking choked to death while eating, yet you still want to blame it on me?

"HMPH! You are simply spouting nonsense! How could it be me who caused it?" The village chief roared with a red face and thick neck.

Yun chujiu saw the village chief's pupils suddenly shrink and her heart moved. Could it be that this village chief was really behind all this? This made sense. This identity was an orphan girl. Once she died, the three tile-roofed houses were very likely to be taken over by the village chief. What a vicious old bastard!

"Because you are the reincarnation of a Jinx! "It is because you are the village chief that we have been implicated by you. Everyone, think about it. Did something bad happen to the village chief's Family?" "Do all the unfortunate things that happened to you have something to do with the village chief?" Yun Chujiu said coldly.

The reason why Yun Chujiu said that was because she made use of the superstitious characteristics of the villagers. People were like that. Psychological hints were very mysterious. The more they thought about it, the more evidence they could find to prove that it was true. It was a dead cycle.

Sure enough, after the villagers were silent for a while, someone said, "Oh my God! Isn't the son of the village chief a Fool? ! Also, the village chief's mother is a widow. His father died a long time ago!"

"Yes, I also heard that the village chief's father-in-law also went up the mountain to chop firewood and fell to his death! Also, the second aunt of his third uncle's brother-in-law jumped into a well and died."

"Now that you mention it, I also remember that Li Zhuzi broke his leg while repairing the village chief's Wall."

“Yes, the time tie suo zi fell into the well, it was also after the village chief’s wife finished fetching water that tie suo zi fetched water and fell into the well.”

“When Aunt Liu’s house was on fire, someone said that they saw a figure running into the village chief’s courtyard. Could it be that the village chief was possessed by a disaster?”

“Also, before carpenter Liu’s youngest son died, he was playing with the village chief’s Foolish Son!”

The three of them became a tiger, and everyone’s words were like gold. The more the villagers talked, the more suspicious they felt about the village chief. Even the things that originally had nothing to do with the village chief were all linked to the village chief.

The village chief’s triangular eyes were red. He was so angry that he almost passed out. “Nonsense! All of you are talking nonsense! This Yun Chujiu is the jinx. I’m doing this for your own good!”

Yun chujiu sighed, she wiped away the Crocodile’s tears. “My fellow villagers, the secret of heaven can not be revealed. I stopped the rainstorm yesterday and already lost three years of my life. However, for the sake of your safety, I have to tell the truth.”
