

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1785

Hearing Yun Chujiu's words, Carpenter Sun's eyes turned red as he went to stop the village chief.
"Village chief, Stop! Why is my fourth baby's silver collar in Yuan Bao's hands?"

Seeing this, Carpenter Sun's brothers also went forward and stopped the village chief and the Fool.

The village chief's eyes flickered, and he shouted with a fierce expression, "I obviously bought this for Yuan Bao, why is it your fourth baby's? Don't talk nonsense! Get out of the way!"

Carpenter sun snatched the silver collar from the fool's hand and shouted, "There's fourth baby's name on it! This is fourth baby's collar!"

Yun Chujiu felt that it was time for her to make her appearance, so she said, "Take the village chief to the side, I'll ask Yuan Bao."

The village chief struggled hard, but how could a dry old man like him break free.

Carpenter Sun's brothers gagged the village chief and brought him to the side.

Yun Chujiu said to the crowd, "Give me a few pieces of candy if any aunt has it. Carpenter Sun will pay you back double."

Immediately, a woman took out an oil paper bag and handed it to Yun Chujiu. Yun chujiu opened it and saw that there were a few pieces of candy inside. She took out one and said to the fool, "Yuan Bao, what do you see? Do You Want It?"

The Fool did not care that his father was caught. When he saw the candy, his eyes began to shine. "Yuan Bao wants candy, Yuan Bao wants Candy."

"Yuan Bao, answer my questions obediently. If you answer them well, I will reward you with a piece of candy, okay?" Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Yuan Bao drooled and nodded repeatedly. "Ask Away!"

"You just said that your mother gave fourth baby soup. Did fourth baby fall asleep after drinking the soup? And then your mother took off the collar?"

Yuan Bao nodded vigorously. "Yes, yes. Fourth Baby Drank the soup, and mother took off the collar."

Hearing this, carpenter Sun immediately rushed to the village chief and took out the rag from the village chief's mouth, he shouted angrily, "Tell me, did your wife feed fourth baby poison? No wonder fourth baby was in a daze when he came back from your house. He died a few days later!"

The village chief looked furious, "Yuan Bao is a fool. Do you believe what he said? "This collar was picked up by Yuan Bao. He probably dropped it when fourth baby was playing with it. My wife is a little greedy, but she wouldn't want to kill a child just for a collar! "Don't be fooled by that B * Tch Yun Chujiu!"

Yun chujiu sneered and said, "Carpenter Sun, don't talk nonsense with him. Catch the village chief's wife and you'll know everything. However, we're making so much noise. His wife hasn't come out yet, so there's a high chance that she has already run away. You'd better chase her back first. She probably won't be able to run far."

Carpenter sun immediately rushed into the courtyard. As expected, he didn't see the village chief's wife. He immediately led a few villagers to chase after her.

The village chief's wife was fat and could not run fast. She was quickly caught and brought back.

"Aiyo, you bastards! Slow down! Slow down!"The village chief's wife shouted like a shrew cursing the street.

Carpenter Sun's wife also ran over at this time and scratched the village chief's wife. "You black-hearted poisonous woman, return my fourth child's Life!"

The corner of Yun Chujiu's eyes twitched and she coughed twice, "Stop first. It's not too late to beat him up after you've asked him."

Only then did everyone move forward to pull the excited carpenter Sun's wife away. Yun chujiu sized up the village chief's wife, she asked with a smile, "Now that the matter between the two of you has been exposed, if this is reported to the authorities, there will definitely be one main criminal and one accomplice. The main criminal will definitely lose his head. As for the accomplice, they will only be locked up for a few years at most. They will be released after the royal amnesty. So do you want to live or Die?"
