

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1813

Yun chujiu hurriedly fed the old man a medicinal pill, but the old man's injuries were too severe. Although his life was not in danger after consuming the medicinal pill, he would not wake up for at least ten days to half a month.

Yun chujiu had no choice but to send the old man to his residence. After having the secret guards of the Temple of Immortals protect him, she once again helped the crowd deal with the aftermath.

This time, it could be said that the Tianyuan Academy had suffered the greatest damage. Fortunately, the crowd had experienced what it meant to be united as one, and their cohesiveness was stronger than before.

In the final count, although no students had died, there were nearly a hundred students whose Dantian had been destroyed. The faces of those students were as ashen as death. Not being able to cultivate meant that they would only be ordinary people in the future, they only had a lifespan of a few decades.

Yun chujiu frowned and could not help but sigh. If the guai Cao in her dantian could not be removed in the future, it might end up like this. Could it be that her Dantian was destroyed and she could not cultivate?

"Prince Charming, I seem to have heard you say that after the Dantian is destroyed, the Dantian can be rebuilt. Can you rebuild the Dantian for these students?" Yun chujiu whispered to di beiming.

Di beiming sighed, "Little Jiu, if it's that simple, I don't have to worry about the guai Cao in your Dantian. "Although my master has the art of Dantian Reconstruction, the Dantian after reconstruction is extremely fragile. If it's not done properly, it will be destroyed again. Therefore, the spiritual power of the person who reconstructs the Dantian can only remain below the level of a spiritual venerable."

"Even so, it's still better than being a cripple. Ask My martial uncle if he can help them reconstruct their dantian. If they need spirit stones or herbs, I can provide them." Yun Chujiu said with a pained expression.

Di beiming could not help but curl the corners of his mouth. "Little Jiu, are you really willing to do it?"

Yun chujiu sighed. "Of course I'm not willing to do it! However, you also know that those people in black came for my master. These students were implicated. My master must feel guilty. As his disciple, if I can help him, I can at least alleviate his guilt."

Di beiming comforted, "I will definitely fight for it with my master. Moreover, these students are not very talented. Even if their Dantian is not destroyed, they might not be able to cultivate to the level of a spiritual venerable. Therefore, you should advise your master not to feel too guilty! "Moreover, the path of cultivation is full of dangers. You Can't blame others if your strength isn't good enough."

Yun chujiu obviously knew that di beiming was comforting her. She nodded, "Okay, let's deal with the aftermath first. Then, there's a big thing waiting for us to do!"

Di beiming was stunned, "What big thing?"

"There are still seven people trapped in the trial tower!" "Wait until everything is settled here. We'll close the door and kill the dogs. We'll release one person from the trial tower and kill another. We'll leave behind a soul search and we'll know the background of these people." Yun Chujiu said fiercely.

If they hurt her master, none of them would be able to live!

Di beiming nodded. "Alright, let's first recover our physical strength and spiritual power. Then, we'll think of a foolproof plan before killing them."

After a day and night of cleaning up, the Tian Yuan Academy temporarily regained its peace.

As the old man was unconscious, there was no way for them to ask any questions. Hence, everyone could only gather together to discuss how to deal with the seven people in the trial tower.

Finally, everyone discussed. After setting up layers of formations, they would have the trial tower release everyone one by one. This way, they would be able to ensure that every person that came out would be killed without leaving any trouble behind.
