

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1820

"Grandfather has prepared a lot of your favorite food for you. Lunch is also ready. Hurry up and come in!" Yun Xiaotian wiped away his tears. He saw that Yun Chujiu had grown up to be more elegant and refined. Now, she had found her son and daughter-in-law back, naturally, he felt very comforted.

Yun Chujiu introduced Jin Zhi to everyone. After everyone greeted her, they all entered the Yun mansion happily.

Yun Chujiu felt that she was simply too blissful right now!

She had family, loved ones, and friends. There were also countless spirit stones in her storage ring. Wasn't that the pinnacle of her life? !

In the next few days, Yun Chujiu brought Jin Zhi around. Today, she went to the Thunder sect to show off, and tomorrow, she went to the Linghua sect to show off. She was just short of announcing to the world that she, Yun Chujiu, had returned!

Di beiming was not as heartless as her. He seized every opportunity to create a good impression in front of the Yun family. He had already decided in his heart that after returning to the Tian Yuan continent this time, he would give the betrothal gifts and wait for Yun Chujiu to graduate before getting married.

Yun Chujiu and the others had stayed in the Qing Xuan continent for more than half a month. Although the SAINTESS had tried her best to invite Yun Xiaotian and the others to settle down in the Netherworld continent, Yun Xiaotian was still unable to leave his hometown. Everyone had no choice but to leave in tears.

“Grandfather, we will come back to see you soon! Don’t worry, when the time comes, my mother might bring back a grandchild for you!” Yun chujiu stood on the flying spirit tool and said with a smile.

The sadness of leaving was immediately washed away by Yun Chujiu’s interference.

After Yun chujiu and di beiming escorted the SAINTESS and Yun Zhangqing to the Netherworld continent, they returned to the Tian Yuan continent. Yun Chujiu and the Sheng NV had also returned to the Tian Yuan continent.

Yun chujiu had not seen the palace master’s wife for a long time, so she decided to follow di beiming back to the temple of Immortals to take a look. Naturally, di beiming was more than happy to do so.

“Beauty Jin Zhi, it’s not interesting for you to return to the Tian Yuan Academy alone. Follow me to the Temple of Immortals as a guest!” “Let me tell you, the food cooked in the dining hall of the Prince’s family is so delicious!” “There’s also a large forest of spirit fruits. The fruits on them are very sweet and tempting.”

Jin Zhi slapped di Beiming’s cold arrow. “Good! Good! I heard about the Temple of Immortals in the netherworld. It’s a good opportunity for me to experience it.”

Di beiming wished he could slap Jin Zhi away. However, he was afraid that Yun Chujiu would be angry, so he could only keep quiet with a dark face.

Jin Zhi knew that di beiming was unhappy, but this guy had a big heart. As long as Yun Chujiu was happy, she did not care whether di beiming was happy or not!

The two little girls hit it off very well. They chatted endlessly and soon, the flying spirit tool arrived at the longevity palace.

“Auntie! Little Jiu came to see you! Did you miss me?”Yun chujiu directly gave the palace mistress a big hug.

“You’re already a big girl! And you’re still so unstable!”Although the palace mistress said so, her eyelashes were happy. It was clear that she was very happy.

Yun Chujiu introduced Jin Zhi to the hall master’s wife. The hall master’s wife said some polite words and gave Jin Zhi a greeting gift. Everyone began to chat happily.

Although di beiming had already told the hall master’s wife some things, the hall master’s wife still asked about it.

Yun Chujiu said it again with a beaming face. When she mentioned the mother-daughter relationship, the hall master's wife also shed a few tears.

Yun chujiu thought of the matter of the prodigy roll, she said rather smugly, "Aunt, I'm really sorry. When I challenged The Prodigy roll, I accidentally got first place on the overall roll. Moreover, this first place will never be snatched away by others in the future!"
