

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1822

"May I know how to address this lady? What brings you to My Palace of Immortals?" Di Linhan asked in a low voice.

The expression on the lady's face remained unchanged, but Yun chujiu quickly caught a trace of disdain in her eyes.

"I am manager Xia of the Mo clan on the immortal Yuan continent. I am here under the orders of my clan head and Lady to welcome the eldest daughter back to the Mo clan. Eldest daughter, Please!"

Di Linhan and the others were immediately taken aback. Eldest miss? Could she be referring to little jiu?

"Manager Xia, May I know who the eldest miss you are referring to?" Di Linhan continued to ask.

Manager Xia raised her chin slightly and looked at Yun chujiu: "In your place, she should be called Yun chujiu right! Eldest miss, the family head and Madam are missing their daughters dearly. Come back to the Mo residence with me immediately!"

The wife of the palace lord could not take it anymore: "Outrageous! Even if they were to recognize each other as family, there would be no one like you. What evidence do you have to prove that Little Jiu is your young miss? Moreover, even if little jiu is really the young miss of your mo residence, you are just a servant and you have such an attitude?"

A trace of viciousness flashed in manager Xia's eyes, and she raised her hand to strike the wife of the palace lord. Fortunately, Di Linhan had acted in time to neutralize the strike, but she could feel the spirit energy within her dantian trembling intensely... , a shadow could not help but form in her heart. Manager Xia's spirit energy was truly unfathomable.

"What right does an ant from a lower grade continent have to question this manager? If it was not for the sake of the eldest miss, I would have long sent people to exterminate your so-called palace of Immortals! A power from a lower grade continent actually dared to call themselves the Palace of Immortals? They really overestimated their own abilities, making people laugh out loud!" Manager Xia saw that their relationship had been torn to shreds, her words became even more arrogant.

When Yun Chujiu saw that di beiming was about to make a move, she spoke first, "Manager Xia, May I know if the Mo clan you mentioned is in the eastern continent or the western continent of the immortal origin continent?"

When manager Xia heard this, she couldn't help but feel a little surprised. This country bumpkin even knew that the immortal origin continent was divided into the eastern continent and the western continent? She probably heard it by chance.

"Our Mo residence is in the western continent, but our family is in the eastern continent. Miss, with your spiritual power, there is still some time left for you to ascend, but now you can directly go to the immortal essence continent. You have reached the sky in one step! Hurry up and follow me!"

“Of course, you can leave, but you have to prove that I am the miss that you speak of! Otherwise, if I go up and enjoy a few good days, and you call me an imposter, wouldn’t I be happy for nothing!” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Manager Xia could not help but despise her in his heart. One look and he could tell that she was greedy for wealth. This would be easy to handle!

“Lady, our Mo residence will naturally not simply find someone to recognize them as family. This time, we naturally have conclusive evidence.

“Eldest miss’s appearance is exactly the same as that of the late madam. In addition, we have already found your foster mother and obtained this small quilt from her. The corner of this small quilt has our Mo Residence’s special imprint, “Moreover, the time we found you also coincides with the time you went missing at that time, so eldest miss doesn’t need to doubt your identity.”

“Oh, since that’s the case, then I’m relieved! Oh right, what have you done with my foster father and Foster Mother?”

Manager Xia saw that Yun Chujiu did not look worried about her adoptive father and adoptive mother. On the contrary, she looked excited, in her heart, she was even more contemptuous. “They are unharmed. As long as miss follows us back to the Mo family, we will release your adoptive parents!”
