

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1825

Manager Xia and the others looked at Yun Chujiu with envy as she stared at the flying spirit tool. They all looked at her with disdain. This young miss was really a country bumpkin who had never seen the world.

After Yun Chujiu boarded the flying spirit tool, she looked around and asked all sorts of questions.

At first, manager Xia only gave a few perfunctory answers. Later on, she simply stopped talking.

Yun Chujiu did not mind. She continued to wander around, occasionally looking for two maids to talk to the guards.

"May I know how to address the two sisters?" Yun chujiu asked the two maids with a smile.

"My Name Is Dong Qing, and her name is Xia Ye." The two maids saw that Yun Chujiu actually addressed them as sisters, and they could not help but feel very proud. HMPH, so what if she is the eldest daughter of the Mo Family? Now, she's still humbly fawning over us, what a waste!

"What a good name! The Mo residence is indeed worthy of being a large family in the high-level continent, their naming skills are really good!" F * ck, why wasn't it called Cordyceps sinensis! Pui!

“Eldest daughter’s original name was even more elegant. TSK TSK, it’s much better than the current Yun Chujiu!” Dong Qing’s eyes flashed with a hint of schadenfreude.

“Oh? Then what was my original name?” Yun chujiu pretended to be curious and asked.

“Mo Fangcao!”

Yun Chujiu’s heart was like a beeping dog. Listen to this name, F * ck? This clearly meant that it was worthless! It seemed that it was not welcomed when it was born!

“I wonder if I have younger siblings? What are their names?”

“Of course there are. Second Miss, Mo Fanghua, is a heaven’s favorite in the Western continent. Young master, Mo Junchen, is also a pretty good person!”

“Other than them, I don’t have any other siblings?” Yun chujiu could not help but curl her lips in her heart. One grass, one flower. This was enough to tell who was more favored! As for that young master, he was probably a gangster. Otherwise, he would not have paused for a moment before saying “Pretty good”.

“There’s also the third miss, Mo fangqin, who came from Aunty Qiu. Although she can’t be compared to the second miss, she can still be considered pretty good in the western continent.”

Yun Chujiu had a rough idea of the composition of the Mo Residence’s personnel, so she did not ask about the Mo residence anymore. Instead, she rambled on about other things.

Although Dong Qing and Xia Ye looked down on Yun chujiu, Yun Chujiu was, after all, the eldest miss in name. They felt very comfortable being fawned on like this, so they haughtily chatted with Yun Chujiu.

Three days later, they finally arrived at the boundary between the immortal Yuan continent and the Tian Yuan continent.

Yun chujiu did not expect that this boundary was actually in a sea.

There were already five people waiting by the shore. Yun chujiu guessed that these people might be the ones who originally wanted to capture Yun Xiaotian and the others.

Manager Xia said coldly, “Eldest miss, don’t blame me for not warning you. This boundary is very dangerous. If you act without permission, you will bear the consequences!”

“Manager Xia, I cherish my life the most. I will be obedient! However, how are we going to pass through the barrier? Will There Be Danger?”Yun chujiu asked carefully.

“Humph!”! If it was anyone else, they would naturally not be able to pass through the barrier. However, our Mo residence had a treasure passed down from our ancestors to protect us. Otherwise, do you think that everyone would be able to pass through the barrier easily? Wouldn’t that be a mess!”Manager Xia said arrogantly.

“Ah, so that’s the case! Our Mo family is really powerful. We actually have such a treasure! I Can’t wait to see Father. If he sees me, he might even reward me with this treasure!”Yun Chujiu’s eyes flashed with blue light as she said.
