

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1829

Second Aunt?

Manager Xia staggered. This country bumpkin really dared to say that! The most taboo thing for the madam was these three words. This country bumpkin was always bringing up the wrong topic! Later, before entering the manor, she had to remind her again. Otherwise, the madam would definitely vent her anger on her.

“Eldest miss, there’s no need to buy a gift. Let’s hurry back to the Manor!” Manager Xia hurriedly said, afraid that Yun chujiu would cause any more trouble.

“Manager Xia, What You Said is wrong! I came all the way here, how can I have two empty claws? Besides, how long can I waste to buy a gift? I’ve waited for seventeen years, and I still need such a short time? Or are you sincere in wanting to make a fool of me?” Yun Chujiu said unhappily.

Manager Xia wanted to sew up Yun Chujiu’s mouth and take her back to the Mo residence. However, there were so many people watching in public, and there were forces fighting openly and secretly with the Mo residence. It would be bad if the rumors were to spread.

Manager Xia had no choice but to say, “Since the eldest miss insists on it, then we’ll do as you say! There are all kinds of shops not far ahead.”

“That’s right! Let’s Go! I’ll definitely help father and the others pick some good things!”After saying that, Yun chujiu cheerfully hopped forward.

Manager Xia gritted her teeth and motioned for everyone to follow.

Dong Qing covered her cheeks and moved closer to manager Xia. She lowered her voice and said, “Manager Xia, are you going to let this country bumpkin be so arrogant?”

Manager Xia snorted coldly. “When we get to the residence, there will naturally be people who will deal with her.”

“That’s right. She’s a country bumpkin to begin with. Does she really think that she can become a phoenix just by flying on a branch? She’s such a big girl, yet she’s still jumping around. She really doesn’t have any rules,”Dong Qing said disdainfully.

“Alright, let’s not talk about this anymore. We don’t want to be exposed,”manager Xia said coldly.

Dong Qing didn’t dare to say anything more. She retreated to the back, but in her heart, she hated Yun Chujiu. Country Bumpkin, just you wait!

Not long after they walked out, Yun Chujiu saw a silk store. She jumped in with a smile.

“Manager, bring out all the good clothes you have here. I want to choose a few good clothes for my father and the others!”

The shopkeeper of the Satin Shop had already heard the story from the people who were watching the show. Although he was not sure if Yun Chujiu had money, he still said politely, “I want to buy some clothes for my father and the others!”

“Miss Mo, the clothes hanging here are all top-quality clothes. Not only are they very comfortable to wear, but they also have a certain degree of defensive function. They are also waterproof and fireproof. The styles are also the most popular.”

Yun chujiu nodded. “You’re right. I’m not short on money anyway. That, that, that, and that... wrap them all up for me!”

The shopkeeper saw that Yun Chujiu had ordered a total of twenty sets of clothes in one go. He was so happy that he could not close his mouth. He immediately ordered the staff in the shop to wrap the clothes that Yun Chujiu wanted.

Manager Xia, who was standing at the side, couldn’t help but twitch her lips. Did this country bumpkin think that the clothes in the immortal Yuan continent were the same price as those in the countryside? Let’s see what happens if she can’t pay the bill later!

“Miss Mo, a total of 3,083,200 upper-grade spirit stones. I’ll give you a small change. You can just give me 3,080,000,”the manager said ingratiatingly.

“Only 3,080,000? The clothes you have here are really good and cheap. Not Bad, not bad!”

“Thank you for your praise. You’re welcome to come often in the future.”Seeing Yun Chujiu’s words, the shopkeeper felt that although this miss was from a low-grade continent, she was still quite generous.
