

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1834

Yun chujia curled her lips. "Is this gate really broken?"

"Missy, it's absolutely true. This gate is really broken!" Manager Xia said with certainty. Could it be that you can find someone to verify it? ! Moreover, even if you were to find someone, would there still be anyone who would speak up for you? !

At this moment, a lot of onlookers had gathered outside the Mo residence. It was human nature to like to join in the fun, so there would be onlookers everywhere.

The onlookers were well aware of the situation. It seemed that the Mo residence wanted to give Miss Mo a show of force. Once they entered through the side door, Miss Mo's life in the Mo residence would be terrible in the future!

"What Miss Mo said is true. The Mo residence really doesn't like her!"

"TSK TSK, is there a need to say that? Miss Mo's mother, Madam Yun, has long died. Now that Madam Luo is the second aunt, she naturally doesn't like Miss Mo. ."

"According to what you said, Lady Mo is the daughter of the first wife. Doesn't that mean that Second Lady Mo is the daughter of a concubine?"

“That’s right, this lady mo is the real daughter of the first wife. Therefore, when she returns, Second Lady Mo will definitely be unhappy and will naturally make things difficult for her.”

“However, this lady mo is alone and her spiritual power is still so low. She can only enter through the side door unless she doesn’t want to acknowledge her ancestors.”

While everyone was whispering, they heard Yun Chujiu raise her voice and said, “Manager Xia, let me ask you again. Is this gate really broken?”

Manager Xia snorted, she said impatiently, “Miss, this gate is really broken. It’s impossible to open it. Let’s hurry and enter through the side door. The Master, Madam, and all the young masters are still waiting!”

Yun chujiu ignored her. Instead, she said to the onlookers, “Please bear witness for me. Manager Xia just said that this gate is completely broken. Did you all hear that?”

The onlookers were never afraid of big things. They clamored, “Miss mo, we all heard it with absolute certainty!”

“Yes, manager Xia said it several times just now. This gate of the Mo residence is indeed broken!”

Both manager Xia and the onlookers were puzzled. What did Miss Mo mean by emphasizing that the gate was broken? Could it be that she was looking for a way out? Could it be that it was not because she was not of noble status but because the gate was broken?

Just as everyone was puzzled, they saw Yun Chujiu smiling brightly at manager Xia. Manager Xia had an ominous feeling in her heart. Previously, after this country bumpkin smiled at Dong Qing, he had given Dong Qing a slap, could it be that he wanted to give her a slap this time?

Thinking of this, manager Xia subconsciously took a few steps back, afraid that Yun Chujiu would fly into a rage, unexpectedly, Yun Chujiu took out a stack of talismans from her storage ring. “Manager Xia, since this door is broken, then destroy it! If the old won’t go and the new won’t come, then let’s make some noise and liven things up!”

As Yun Chujiu said that, she threw the stack of talismans towards the Mo residence’s main door!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The loud explosion made people's ears ring. Yun Chujiu threw a stack of talismans that suddenly cracked. Not to mention the Mo Residence's main door, even the surrounding walls were blasted into ruins!

Everyone was stunned!

Blowing up the main door at the slightest disagreement?

The person invited back by the Mo residence was not just a country bumpkin, he was a freaking jinx!

Manager Xia was scared silly. Her mind was completely blank. She could not understand why the main gate had been blown up when they were clearly discussing whether they should take the side or the main gate?
