

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1835

Yun chujiu giggled. "Manager Xia, I used quite a few talismans in this explosion. However, since it was for the sake of our Mo residence, so be it. I Won't ask father for money anymore!"

Manager Xia felt that she might not live past today. A family's front door had been blown up by someone. It was simply a laughing stock!

Most importantly, it was blown up by her own daughter. This was simply a miracle!

"You, why did you blow up the door? The Master and Madam Will Not Forgive You!" Manager Xia did not care about honorifics anymore and directly questioned her angrily.

Yun chujiu had a puzzled expression. "Aiyo, manager Xia, you won't have any friends doing things like this! Didn't you say that the door was completely broken? Since it was completely broken, why didn't you replace it and keep it for the New Year? I'm a warm-hearted person, so I helped you blow up the door. You Don't appreciate my kindness and still dare to question me? How can you be so thick-skinned? !"

Yun chujiu turned around and asked the onlookers, "Everyone, please give us an explanation. Did she say that the door was broken? I even asked her twice!"

The onlookers came back to their senses, their eyes shining with a strong light of gossip. They didn't know whether this miss mo was stupid or bold enough to blow up the mansion with just a word of disagreement. It was really exciting! It was really too exciting!

"Yes! Miss Mo is right. Manager Xia was the one who said that the door was completely broken!"

"I can also prove that she was indeed the one who said it!"

"Miss Mo did a great job! Anyway, the door is broken. It would save us the trouble of blowing it up."

Only then did manager Xia understand why Yun Chujiu had repeatedly asked her if the door was broken. It turned out that it was all premeditated. Could it be that this country bumpkin actually had such deep thoughts?

Manager Xia shook her head again. It couldn't be. How could a little girl from a lower continent have such meticulous thoughts? She was just a fool who didn't know the immensity of Heaven and earth!

“Manager Xia, didn’t you say that Father and second aunt were waiting for me? Why are you still standing there? Let’s go in now. TSK TSK, if it were up to me, this door should have been blown up a long time ago. Look at how wide the view is. It’s really relaxing!”

Relaxing, my ass!

Manager Xia was about to vomit blood from anger. Initially, she wanted to remind Yun chujiu not to address Mrs. Luo as “Second aunt.” Now, she felt that it was better to let her directly anger Mrs. Luo. It was just the right time to teach her a lesson, this country bumpkin was really too arrogant.

Manager Xia thought of this and said coldly, “Alright, please follow me, miss. .”

Yun chujiu waved her hand at the onlookers. “Everyone, I’m going in now! If my father really wants to ask about the door, you have to testify for me!”

“Miss Mo, don’t worry, we will tell the truth!”

“Yes, Miss Mo, it can’t be true, it can’t be true. Manager Xia said that the gate was broken, we heard it!”

“Miss Mo, don’t worry! We have nothing to do, we will wait at the gate! If you need us to testify, just let us know!”!

The onlookers wanted to follow Yun chujin in to watch the show. This miss mo was so fierce, so it would be more exciting later. Unfortunately, they couldn't go in, but fortunately, the door was blown up, they could still hear some noise.
