

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1838

After saying that, Yun chujiu rushed out of the room. No one expected her to do something like that. They were not prepared at all. The two old ladies looked confused and confused. What happened?

Yun chujiu ran outside and shouted, "I'm not going to Live! I'm not going to Live! I'm not going to Live! As soon as I came back, my father locked me in the woodshed and starved me to death! I'm going to find a crooked tree and hang myself to death! Once I'm dead, I'll be able to see my mother!"

Mo Cheng smashed the coffee table with one palm. "What are you guys standing there for? ! Hurry up and bring that unfilial daughter back to me! I'm so angry! I'm so angry!"

When that old woman heard Mo Cheng's words, she quickly chased after him. Although they were rough women, their spiritual power was only at the fifth level of the spiritual venerable realm. They did not put Yun Chujiu, who was at the second level of the spiritual venerable realm, in their eyes at all.

However, the two old women couldn't catch up with Yun Chujiu. They just watched Yun chujiu rush out of the main gate. Well, the main gate was already gone. In short, she rushed out of the mansion.

The onlookers were all waiting anxiously. Seeing Yun chujiu run out crying and howling, the flames of gossip immediately burned fiercely again.

"Miss Mo, Miss Mo, don't cry. What Happened?"

Yun Chujiu was crying her heart out, she was heartbroken. "Sob, everyone, I shouldn't have returned to the Mo residence!"! When my father saw me, not only did he not ask me if I had been wronged for the past 17 years, he even scolded me. He said that I was an unfilial daughter and that I shouldn't have been brought back.

I felt that he was angry because I blew up the residence, so I explained it in detail. I didn't expect him to actually say that I was only fit to enter the residence through the side door. He even tied me up and locked me in the woodshed to starve me to death!

I originally thought that this was my home, but now that I looked at this place, it was clearly a den of dragons and tigers. It was a place where people were eaten! I Can't go back to the Tian Yuan continent now, and my mother is dead. What's the point of me living? So I'm going to find a crooked tree and hang myself on it!

Eh? That tree is not bad. I'll hang myself on that tree. This way, my ghost will be able to return to the mansion from time to time. After all, this is also my home, SOB SOB..."

As Yun Chujiu spoke, she ran towards a crooked tree. As she cried, she took out a rope and hung it on the tree branch. She looked like she was going to hang herself.

Of course, the bystanders could not just sit by and do nothing. One after another, they tried to persuade her, "Miss Mo, there must be a way to resolve this matter. You Can't be Rash!"

“Miss mo, if there’s something to discuss, we can discuss it. Master Mo might be speaking out of anger. Even a tiger would not eat its own child. He can’t really starve you to death!”

“Miss Mo, a person’s life only comes once. You have to cherish it!”

Yun chujiu seemed to be moved by the crowd’s persuasion, so she was a little hesitant. When the onlookers saw this, they immediately began to persuade her with more sincerity..

Although the two women from the Mo residence had the intention to capture Yun chujiu back, they didn’t dare to act rashly because there were so many people outside. Thus, one of the women quickly returned to the living room.

“Master, Madam, the eldest miss is preparing to hang herself outside the residence. There are many people outside watching the commotion. This old servant does not dare to make a decision.”The old lady explained the situation outside to Mo Cheng.

Mo Cheng stood up in anger. “This unfilial daughter! She really pisses me off! Such an unfilial daughter should be killed with a sword to prevent her from causing trouble again.”
