

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1840

Madam Luo felt that although this country bumpkin had blown up the mansion, he would be right under her nose in the future. Naturally, he wouldn't be able to cause any more trouble.

Thus, Madam Luo said with a loving expression, "You child, no matter what you've done, your father and I will naturally not blame you."

Manager Xia's heart skipped a beat. She did not have the time to report to Madam Luo that Yun Chujiu had harmed more than 20 million high-grade spirit stones. If madam Luo found out later, she would probably explode in anger.

Thinking of this, manager Xia moved to Madam Luo's side and whispered, "Madam, this servant has something to report to you."

"We'll talk when we return to the manor. Can't you see that I'm busy? !"Madam Luo frowned. This manager Xia usually handled matters very well. Why did she have to handle the wrong things one after another today? Was there anything more important than persuading this country bumpkin to return to the manor?

Manager Xia didn't dare to say anything more, but the sweat on her forehead started to appear, and her heart was in turmoil.

Her heart was in turmoil, but Yun Chujiu's heart was bursting with joy, but her face had a timid expression. "Second aunt, is what you said true? No matter what happens, you and father won't be angry? You Won't Punish Me?"

Although Mrs. Luo was impatient in her heart, she still had a loving expression on her face. "Of course it's true. We won't scold you no matter what happens. Hurry up and follow me back to the residence."

When Yun Chujiu heard what Mrs. Luo said, she quickly took the rope from the tree branch and put it into her storage ring. She jumped in front of Mrs. Luo and said, "Second aunt, I'm relieved with your words!"

Yun chujiu said to the onlookers, "Everyone, did you hear what second aunt said? If you don't see me coming out these few days, I'm afraid that I'll either be put under house arrest or killed. You have to uphold justice for me!"

The onlookers shouted one after another, "Miss Mo, don't worry! We're all listening! Madam Luo promised not to punish you. If she doesn't keep her word, we'll make the matter public."

"That's right, even a vicious tiger won't eat its own child. If family head Mo really killed Miss Mo, we'll definitely let him suffer the condemnation of public opinion."

"Miss mo, if you're really killed, we'll come and pay our respects to you on our own accord."

..

Madam Luo finally managed to suppress the anger in her heart with much difficulty. were these people full of themselves? Also, it was really strange. This country bumpkin had only just arrived in Jinchuan city. Why did these people seem to be very familiar with her?

Just as Mrs. Luo was puzzled, she saw the manager of Jiqing restaurant running over while panting. "Miss Mo, Miss Mo, I've brought the banquet you ordered!"

Yun chujiu nodded with a smile. "You've come at the right time. It's about time for dinner."

Mrs. Luo was confused. A Country Bumpkin ordered a banquet? What kind of banquet did she order? However, Mrs. Luo didn't ask too much because of her status.

The manager of Ji Qing restaurant handed Yun chujiu a storage ring and said in a flattering manner, "Miss Mo, this is a ten-table banquet. I'll give you this storage ring and the food box inside."

Ten Good Banquet Tables?

Madam Luo was even more confused. Why did this country bumpkin order so many tables for a banquet? Moreover, a good banquet table in Ji Qing restaurant cost tens of thousands of high-grade spirit stones, and these ten tables cost hundreds of thousands of high-grade spirit stones. Was this country bumpkin so rich?
