

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1863

Mo Fanghua stood up immediately. "Country bumpkin, who do you think you are? A legitimate daughter? A piece of trash like you is a disgrace to the Mo family! Apologize to me right now, or I'll Kill You Right Now!"

Mo Fangqin was gloating at the side. This country bumpkin had kicked an iron plate. Mo Fanghua had always been a man of her word. This time, there would be a good show to watch.

Yun chujiu did not even look at Mo Fanghua. Instead, she said to madam Luo, "Second aunt, I'm full. I'll be returning with third sister."

Madam Luo's eyes flickered. "Alright, you guys have been tired all day. Go back and have a good rest. Fanghua, stay here. Mother has something to tell you."

Mo Fanghua could only glare at Yun chujiu when she heard Luo clan's words. Only then did she return to her seat.

After Yun Chujiu and Mo fangqin left., madam Luo Sighed. "Fanghua, why are you so impatient? Leave this country bumpkin to mother. Just focus on your cultivation. There's no need to lower yourself to the level of these B * stards."

“Mother, this country bumpkin is really detestable. She has only been back for three days, yet she has already caused a ruckus in our Mo residence. If you ask me, you and father are too kind-hearted. Why did you bring back such trash? Just let her fend for herself!” Mo Fanghua said disdainfully.

“You don’t understand. This country bumpkin has a great use. There’s nothing for you here. Go back and cultivate.”

“Mother, what great use can that country bumpkin have with such a low spiritual power? What are you and father planning to let her do?” Mo Fanghua asked curiously.

“This matter is of great importance. You Don’t have to ask anymore. Quickly go back and cultivate!” Mrs. Luo waved her hand, indicating for Mo Fanghua not to ask anymore.

Seeing this, Mo Fanghua could only pout and leave.

“Speak, what exactly is going on?” Seeing that Mo Fanghua had left, Madam Luo asked manager Xia.

Manager Xia explained the whole matter with a bitter face, “Madam, those people are all supporting that country bumpkin. It’s really detestable to the extreme.”

Hearing manager Xia's words, Madam Luo could not help but frown. That day outside the Mo residence, those people were also speaking up for the country bumpkin. Today, it was like this again. What was the reason for this?

The master and servant duo discussed it over and over again. In the end, they felt that it must be the other factions that could not see the Mo residence as a good place, so they had sent people to instigate it.

They did not suspect that it was Yun Chujiu's doing. Because in their opinion, although Yun Chujiu was a little rogue, it was impossible for her to have the ability to instigate those people.

"Madam, if that's the case, are we still going to the dense forest for the trial tomorrow?"

"Of course! I don't believe that those people can always protect the country bumpkin. It's already good enough that they can last for three days. At that time, you can follow the original plan and teach that country bumpkin a lesson." Madam Luo sneered.

Manager Xia nodded, then gritted her teeth and said, "Madam, there's one more thing."

"What is it?"

“Well, that country bumpkin spent another fifty thousand upper-grade spirit stones. This servant didn’t have the time to stop him, so I had no choice but to place my identity jade token in the snack shop.” Manager Xia braced herself and said. She had even thrown away the cost of her coffin.., she really didn’t have the money to pay for it.

Madam Luo was so angry that she directly slapped manager Xia on the face. “You Trash! You Can’t even keep an eye on a trash! I told you to clean her up, but not only did you not clean her up, you even cost me 50,000 spirit stones, You Idiot!”
