

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1866

Yun Chujiu did not mind. These people were just fence-sitters. It was already good enough that they could do this.

After an hour, Yun Chujiu finally killed the giant-toothed bull.

Hei Sha curled his lips. Although this good-for-nothing young lady's movement technique was not bad, she was still too weak. It was easy to make her suffer a little.

Hence, Yun Chujiu was in a miserable state!

The demonic beasts that Hei Sha had found for her were basically all level 28 demonic beasts. Yun chujiu, this fellow, still did not want to reveal her spiritual power, so she was in a very sorry state. Her body was also covered in wounds.

Hei Sha thought that Yun chujiu would soon be unable to hold on and give up. He did not expect that Yun Chujiu did not beg for mercy even though her body was covered in wounds.

Mo fangqin saw that Yun Chujiu's light pink dress was stained with a large amount of blood. However, she was still fighting with the demonic beasts. A thought emerged in her mind. This country bumpkin did not seem to be a good-for-nothing.

Yun Chujiu also made up her mind. Damn it. No matter what, she was indeed too weak now. It was good to take the opportunity to try her out. After all, these people would not watch her die.

Finally, hei sha said coldly, "Miss, let's call it a day! However, your spiritual power is too weak. Let's sleep here today and continue the test tomorrow."

Hei Sha had already thought about what he should say if Yun chujiu did not agree with him. He did not expect Yun chujiu to say with a smile, "Okay, the time to go back and forth has been delayed by the journey. It is good to stay here!"

Hei Sha was stunned for a moment before he snorted coldly. He felt that Yun chujiu must be trying to hold on. Since she was stubborn, he would see how long she could hold on.

Mo fangqin hesitated for a moment before she walked over, "Big Sister, Are You Alright?"

"Don't worry, I Won't Die! I need to take a shower and change my clothes. You better watch out for me," Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Mo Fangqin was dumbfounded. Was this country bumpkin crazy? What nonsense was he talking about? How could he take a shower in the wilderness?

Just as Mo Fangqin was dumbfounded, she saw Yun Chujiu take out a tent made of wood from her storage ring. Yun chujiu covered the tent with a cloth before walking in.

Soon, the sound of water being stirred came from inside. Mo fangqin was surprised and curious. This country bumpkin actually carried a tent and a bathtub with him? Could it be that she often slept outside when she was in the Tian Yuan continent?

Not long after, Yun Chujiu came out in a light purple dress.

Mo fangqin felt a trace of jealousy in her heart. This country bumpkin was not bad looking. She was even more beautiful than Mo Fanghua, who was known as the number one beauty in Jin Chuan City. It was a pity that she was a waste.

On the other side, Hei Sha and the guards were barbecuing meat. They did not greet the two of them. It was obvious that they did not want to bother with them.

Mo fangqin said with a cold face, "Big sister, What Shall We have for dinner?"

Yun chujiu smiled brightly. "Third sister, let's eat something good. Follow me and I will guarantee you a good meal."

Mo Fangqin pouted. This country bumpkin was really daring. However, she had ordered ten tables for the banquet at Ji Qing restaurant. It was not bad to eat that.

Unexpectedly, Yun Chujiu handed her an alchemy furnace and a few pieces of flint stones.

Mo Fangqin's face was full of confusion and confusion. What was this country bumpkin doing? Could it be that he wanted to refine fasting pills for me to eat? Was this what she meant by eating well and drinking spicy food?
