

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1877

Madam Luo was helped to her feet by manager Xia and Qiulan. Although she hated Yun Chujiu to death in her heart, she still said, "Fanghua, don't be rude! Your elder sister was probably shocked by the heavenly lightning just now."

"Second aunt, you're absolutely right! I thought I was already dead. Emma, the Heavenly Lightning was as thick as a person's arm. It struck at me!" Yun chujiu trembled as she spoke, her acting skills were so good that even she herself was impressed.

Everyone's attention was immediately attracted by Yun Chujiu's words. That's right, such a terrifying heavenly lightning. Why didn't this country bumpkin die but was still alive and kicking?

"Fangcao, tell me what happened just now?" Mo Peng asked.

"Sigh, you all know that I have an unlucky heavenly lightning spiritual root. That's why when I was in the Tian Yuan continent, I would occasionally be struck by lightning. "However, the Lightning was only as thick as a pinky finger, and it stopped after a short while. This is the first time I've seen such a terrifying scene. It was simply too frightening!

"Although I'm a coward, I'm the most loyal person. I can't implicate others just because of me. That's why I had Dong Qing and Xia ye inform the other servants to retreat when I saw the dark clouds gathering around Wu Yun.

After they left, I sat in the courtyard and waited to be struck by lightning. When the first Bolt of lightning struck me, I was struck until my entire body was stiff and unable to move. When the second bolt of lightning struck me again, I felt a little dizzy. When the third bolt struck me, I didn't know anything.

"I thought I was dead for sure. I didn't expect that I was still alive. Perhaps the heavens thought that a kind person like me shouldn't die so early, so they spared me this time," Yun Chujiu said with a lingering fear.

Everyone was skeptical. Only three bolts of lightning struck this country bumpkin?

Mo Chang guessed, "Big Brother, second brother, could it be that this heavenly lightning thought that it struck Fang Cao's niece to death after striking three bolts of lightning? So it didn't strike her again?"

Mo Peng looked at the few deep pits on the ground, "What third brother said makes sense. The heavenly lightning this time doesn't seem to be reliable. Normally, the Heavenly Lightning wouldn't accidentally hit other areas, but this time, not only did the heavenly lightning strike so many deep pits on the ground, but it also struck the door of the residence. It really doesn't make sense."

The crowd discussed and couldn't think of any other possibility, so they could only agree with Yun Chujiu's words.

Mo Peng and Mo Chang looked at each other, mo Chang said, "Second brother, Fangcao's courtyard has been hacked into such a state. It's not comfortable to live there. Why don't I bring Fangcao to the old residence? Fangcao hasn't met her grandparents yet, so it's a good time for her to pay her respects."

Mo Cheng snorted coldly, "Eldest brother, third brother, don't think about Fangcao anymore. Fangcao is my daughter. Not to mention that I'm still alive, even if I die, I won't give her to you."

Yun chujia sneered in her heart. Her words sounded cold, and she thought that it was because she doted on her daughter. Unfortunately, it was only for the sake of benefits.

Mo peng smiled and said, "Second brother, looking at what you said, we really don't have any other intentions. We're going back anyway. It's just on the way." "Since you're unwilling, then forget it." "However, if you and your sister-in-law continue to mistreat Fang Cao, US uncles will definitely not sit by and do nothing."

Mo Cheng snorted coldly. "Big Brother and third brother should be more concerned about your own children. You Don't have to worry about the matters of our second branch."
