

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1890

This was the first time Mo Fangqin had entered Mo Xiaoting's study room. Not to mention her, even Mo Fanghua had never been allowed in. Who would have thought that she would come in in such a fashion today.

Yun chujiu couldn't help but sigh. The last person she had met was her grandfather. Although the grandfather wasn't related by blood, he was someone who loved her dearly.

The person in front of her was obviously her biological grandfather, but he was a scheming stranger who only cared about benefits.

Yun Chujiu sensibly kneeled on the ground, so did mo fangqin.

"Speak, what's going on? If you don't have a proper reason, I won't let you off lightly," mo xiaoting asked after sitting down.

"Grandfather, the reason why the two of us had to apologize was because we didn't fulfill our responsibilities as sisters. We allowed Jun Chen's mischievous actions to tarnish the Mo family's reputation. We deserve to be punished," Yun Chujiu said bitterly.

Mo Fangqin's heart tightened. Could it be that this country bumpkin wanted to punish Mo Junchen because of what happened last night? You idiot! ! Mo Junchen was her grandmother's treasure. How could her grandfather possibly punish him? ! It was over. Not only was her grandfather going to punish them, her grandmother wasn't going to let them off either! Even Madam Luo was going to look for trouble. She had been tricked to death by this country bumpkin!

Mo Xiaoting furrowed his brows, "Jun Chen? Jun Chen is indeed a little stubborn, but your parents have their own ways of disciplining him. Why are you asking for forgiveness?"

Yun Chujiu immediately stood up. Mo Fangqin was so shocked that she almost fell to the ground. It was over, it was over. Was this country bumpkin going to flip out? !

Mo Xiaoting was also shocked. What was this Mo Fangqin trying to do?

"Grandfather! Although you are an elder and there are some things you shouldn't say as a junior, I can't take it anymore. I have to say it! Even if you want to punish me, I will say it!" Yun Chujiu straightened her back and said seriously.

Mo Xiaoting was amused, "Oh? I want to hear what you have to say. Say It!"

"Grandfather, there is a saying: A glimpse of a leopard can tell a whole leopard. From your evaluation of Jun Chen just now, I know why he is so stubborn! This is all the result of your indulgence!

What do you mean by being a little naughty? “As far as I know, Jun Chen is already thirteen years old, but his spiritual power is only at the third level of the Supreme Spirit realm now. Isn’t this too low? “This means that he doesn’t spend his energy on cultivation at all.

“If it’s just his spiritual power being low, then it’s nothing. The main thing is that he’s always stirring up trouble. He thinks that the sky is the biggest and he’s the second. He has an arrogant look on his face. What right does he have to be so arrogant? !

Perhaps, you felt that he wasn’t the eldest grandson of the first wife. It didn’t matter if he wasn’t a good-for-nothing. However, a rat’s feces spoiled a pot of soup.

It didn’t matter if he was stupid or useless. However, if he was stupid, useless, and lawless, he would ruin the whole thing!

The immortal essence continent was filled with experts. If his mischievous personality offended an expert, our entire MO family would be buried with him!

I heard that the Mo family’s main family is on the eastern continent. Who knows, one day, we might be able to return to the eastern continent. At that time, with such an idiot following us, wouldn’t you be afraid, wouldn’t you be heartbroken?”Yun Chujiu said bitterly.

Not to mention Mo Xiaoting, even Mo Fangqin felt that what Yun Chujiu said made sense. Having such a troublemaker in the family made her uneasy. Once he offended a powerful cultivator, destroying the mo family would be a piece of cake.
