

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1894

"Fangcao, of course we have to give you a welcome gift. You really have a short temper!" Wu Shi said with a smile, but her words were full of disdain.

"Fangcao, your aunt is right. You really have a short temper!" Niu Shi also agreed, and her expression was also full of disdain.

Although Mo Peng and Mo Chang had told them to strive for Yun Chujiu's succession to their respective manors, they did not think much of it. This was because they felt that the matter of succession was simply unrealistic, so they were not too enthusiastic, the meeting gift prepared for Yun Chujiu was only a middle-grade spirit tool.

"Aunt, third aunt, it's not that I have a short temper, but uncle and third uncle had already said that they would let you two give me a very expensive meeting gift. Moreover, each family will have two of them! "That's why I've always been thinking about this useless person!" Yun chujiu said with slight embarrassment.

Mo fangqin stumbled. Heavens, this country bumpkin really dared to say that! She had previously cheated uncle and third uncle of so many things. Now, she still dared to continue to cheat aunt and third aunt. wasn't she afraid that they would settle the score later?

Wu Shi and Niu Shi, however, believed her words. They couldn't help but feel a little embarrassed. Their master had bragged about it. If they didn't honor it, wouldn't they lose a lot of face?

Wu Shi gritted her teeth and said painfully, "Fang Cao, your uncle did tell me yesterday that you have suffered a lot over the years. This, this jade bracelet and jade ring will be given to you!"

Seeing that Wu Shi had given them two upper-grade spirit tools, Niu Shi could only grit her teeth and take out two upper-grade spirit tools to give to Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu put the things into her storage ring with a smile. "Thank you, aunt! Thank you, third aunt! Go back and thank uncle and third uncle for me. You are really too good to me!"

Wu Shi and Niu Shi put on a stiff face and said a few perfunctory words. In their hearts, they secretly blamed their husbands. There was no trace of Guo Ji at all. Now, they had thrown in two high-grade spirit weapons.

After Yun chujiu thanked Wu Shi and Niu Shi, she turned her gaze to Mo Fangshuang and the other two, she said with a smile, "Sister Fangshuang, Fangmin, Sister Fanghui, it's our first time meeting. I have some small gifts for you guys. I wonder if you guys have something for me too?"

Mo Fangshuang and the other two were stunned!

How could this country bumpkin be so shameless? ! It was one thing for him to ask for gifts from his elders, but now he was actually asking for gifts from his peers?

However, they thought that since they had a good relationship with each other, they would not be at a disadvantage, so they took out a middle-grade spirit tool and gave it to Yun Chujiu. Then, they looked at Yun chujiu with eager eyes, wanting to know what gift she would give in return.

At this moment, Mo Fangqin really wanted to find a hole to hide in, because she was very sure of what Yun Chujiu would give in return, and that was cabbage! Oh God, it was really too embarrassing!

As expected.., yun chujiu smiled as she took out three cabbages and stuffed them into the hands of Mo Fangshuang and the other two. "Sister Fangshuang, Sister Fangmin, Sister Fanghui, giving gifts is not about the value, what is important is the thought. "These are the cabbages that I have painstakingly carried from the Tian Yuan continent. They are all natural, green, and non-polluted. Take them back and stew them. They taste great!"

Mo fangshuang..

Mo fangmin..

Mo fanghui..

The three of them held the cabbages in their hands and looked confused. They had received many gifts, but this was the first time they had received cabbages. They had even used a middle-grade spirit tool to exchange for cabbages!
