

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1911

Old Madam Liu saw that Yun Chujiu had sworn an oath, so she snorted coldly. "Speak. I want to hear what you have to say from the bottom of your heart."

"Grandmother, why don't You Give Me a seat? I've been chased away by this nanny Gao this morning. I'm exhausted to death." Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Old Madam Liu took a deep breath and gritted her teeth. "Sit down!"

"Alright! Granny Gao, get someone to bring me a pot of tea and a few plates of snacks. Grandmother and I will chat while we eat."

Granny Gao was holding a bunch of lotus pods in her hands. She felt that her brain wasn't enough. Didn't old madam just shout for death? Why did she let that country bumpkin sit there in such a short time?

She even wanted to drink tea? She even wanted to eat snacks? How could you be so thick-skinned? The old madam would definitely not agree!

"Grandmother, don't tell me you don't even have tea and snacks here? "Forget it. Fortunately, I have prepared myself. I usually do things that I can do on my own and don't trouble others." As the fellow spoke, he took out a pot of tea and a plate of snacks from his storage ring.

Yun chujia ate two pieces of snacks and sipped on two cups of tea until old madam Liu was about to fly into a rage, only then did she say, "Grandmother, I'm the most straightforward person. Just say what you have to say and don't pick on me."

"Say what you have to say, and say what you have to say!" Old Madam Liu was so anxious that she was sweating. What exactly was this little slut going to say?

"Grandmother, do you think that I was too vicious when I broke Jun Chen's leg today?"

Old Madam Liu heard Yun Chujia mention Mo Junchen and her anger immediately rose again, Yun Chujia quickly said, "Granny Gao, don't just stand there. You have nothing better to do. Peel the lotus seed pod for my grandmother and let her calm down."

When Granny Gao saw that old madam Liu did not object, she really helped old madam Liu Peel the lotus seed pod.

"Grandmother, although Junchen and I are not of the same mother, we are still siblings. Can I be that vicious? "You don't know that even though I broke his leg, my heart is bleeding!" Yun chujia wiped her tears with her sleeve as she spoke.

Mo fangqin could not help but curse in her heart. This fellow's acting was really good. He cried just like that, as if it was real!

Old Madam Liu frowned suspiciously. The little slut looked really sad. What was going on?

“Grandmother, Sigh! I'll tell you the truth! I'm not targeting you, nor my younger brother Junchen. I'm targeting second aunt! You must be wondering why I'm targeting second aunt when I have no enmity with her? I'm doing this for my father, and also for Junchen!

Although I wasn't brought back for a long time, I've heard some things. For example, my eldest uncle and my third uncle were filial to you and grandfather. Only my father ran to Jin Chuan City to establish his own family. This must have been instigated by second aunt. She has no good intentions!”Yun Chujiu said angrily.

Old Madam Liu's heart moved. If there was one thing she was most dissatisfied with about madam Luo, it would be the matter of Madam Luo urging Mo Cheng to move to Jin Chuan City to establish his own family. Therefore, when she heard Yun Chujiu mention this matter, she could not help but lean forward.

Yun chujiu had been observing old madam Liu's expression. When she saw the situation, she could not help but feel smug in her heart. The fish had taken the bait.

“Grandmother, there's a good saying. With your parents around, you won't be able to travel far, much less move to Jin Chuan City to settle down! Second aunt kept saying that she was doing this for my father's good, but I could not see what was good about it! My father was ostracized by the other forces in Jinchuan city, how could he have the glory of first uncle and third uncle?"Yun Chujiu said with a twitch of her lips.
