

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1914

"Grandmother, you are so wise. Do you still need me to show off? You are the mother-in-law and she is the daughter-in-law. As long as she enters the old residence, you can do whatever you want to her.

You are too soft-hearted! That's why her plot succeeded. You have to be more ruthless to her!
"Although my father and Junchen might not be happy, but for the sake of the long-term plan, this is what you love about them!" Yun chujiu said in a flattering manner.

Old Madam Liu said with a little pride, "You Little Girl, you sure know how to talk. Not Bad, I'm just too soft-hearted. You're just a slut who was supported by a concubine. You're still letting me flatten you!"

"Grandmother, I have a suggestion. Do you think it's appropriate?". My third sister's aunt had a gentle personality. She was often bullied by second aunty. Originally, she could have given you a few fat grandsons. But because of second aunty's interference, my poor father did not dare to enter Aunty Qiu's room.

"Find a catalyst to bring Aunty Qiu to the old residence, and then call my father back if there's anything else. I believe that you'll have a plump grandchild next year! "Moreover, you can also use this to teach Aunty Qiu a lesson and let her know that you're not someone to be trifled with. No matter how powerful her family is, she still has to listen to you!"

After Yun Chujiu said this, Mo Fangqin's face instantly turned red. This country bumpkin was really shameless and dared to say anything!

Old Madam Liu's heart stirred. As the matriarch of the Mo residence, she naturally hoped to have many children. Out of the three sons, Mo Cheng had the fewest children.

This Lass's suggestion was not bad. This way, she might really have a few more fat grandsons. Furthermore, she might even be able to get Mo Cheng to move back. At the same time, she might be able to teach Luo Shi a lesson.

"What you said makes sense. I'll consider it." Old Madam Liu's tone had already softened considerably.

At this moment, Yun Chujiu stood up and pulled Mo Fangqin to bow respectfully to Old Madam Liu. "Grandmother, your granddaughter offended you previously. Your granddaughter is in the wrong! Please forgive your granddaughter!"

Old Madam Liu saw Yun Chujiu and Mo Fangqin doing so, and the last bit of resentment in her heart also dissipated, she nodded. "Forget it! I'm already so old. How can I really lower myself to your level! As long as you are obedient and don't bully Jun Chen, I will naturally dote on you."

"Grandmother, we still can't bear to dote on Jun Chen, how can we bully him? ! In a few days, when Jun Chen's injuries are better, we will go and see him again. We will definitely coax him to be happy." Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

“Mm, if your hearts and your words are the same, I will not mistreat you. If I find out that you are lying to me, I will not forgive you!”

“Grandmother, look at what you are saying! Firstly, we don’t have the guts. Secondly, you are someone who doesn’t know how to read between the lines. How can you not know whether we are sincere or fake? !”Yun Chujiu said flatteringly.

Old Madam Liu might have been too angry with Yun Chujiu previously. She suddenly felt very comfortable after being flattered by Yun Chujiu. Her head and buttocks were originally hurting, but now they were no longer hurting.

“Didn’t your grandfather ask you to accompany him to read books? You Can’t dress too inappropriately, so I’ll give these two sets of clothes to you!”Old Madam Liu said as she took out two sets of clothes from her storage ring.

One of the two sets of clothes was fiery red while the other was Lake Blue. Yun chujiu, this fellow, said with a smile, “I like to be festive the most, so I’m thick-skinned enough to choose this red one. Third sister, I’ve wronged you by asking for that lake blue one.”
