

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 194

The little black bird hurriedly cried out a few times. The cub's front legs went weak, and with a thunk, it fell to the ground.

The shaking cub got up and ran to one of the adult elephant's legs and rubbed against it, obviously feeling a little scared.

"Master, I can only use this curse once a day. What should we do next?"

Yun Chujiu felt that even if she and Little Black used their true strength, they would not be able to deal with so many powerful level eight beasts. What should she do?

Yun Chujiu used her spiritual sense to scan the storage ring and found a handful of golden fur. She remembered that this was the tiger fur of Elder Xiao's spiritual pet, the Gold-spotted Scarlet Flame Tiger. Yun Chujiu was desperate, so she pretended to take out the tiger fur from her bosom.

"Don't push your luck! I'm hiding something! This is just to show off my power! See? This is the tiger fur of the Gold-spotted Scarlet Flame Tiger. If I dare to pull off the tiger fur, I'm not afraid of you! You have to think about the consequences. If you eat us, you won't be able to recover!" Yun Chujiu said as she blew the tiger fur forward.

When the Mighty Elephants saw their cubs fall for no reason, they were a little surprised. Now that they saw the Gold-spotted Scarlet Flame tiger's fur, they became even more suspicious.

These beasts already had intelligence. Although they could not speak human language, they could still understand it.

When Yun Chujiu saw that they did not come forward anymore, she felt a little more confident, she straightened her back and said, "Besides, we don't have much meat in total. Even if you eat us, we'll only be enough to fill the gaps between your teeth. Why bother? By then, your little lives will be gone.

“Not to mention this cute little elephant! It just came to this world, and you have the heart to take away its life just like that?! It hasn’t seen the outside world yet, and it hasn’t found a life partner yet. How can you be so heartless to harm it just because of two mouthfuls of meat?”

Yun Chujiu did not dare to stop and could only talk desperately to stall for time. “Impulsiveness is the devil, don’t be impulsive! Our meat is not as delicious as those rabbit meat, and I’m also a waste with no spiritual power! I heard that it was because I was poisoned when I was in my mother’s womb! Aren’t you afraid of being poisoned by me?”

“You’ve lived for so many years, and that’s enough! But, if that little elephant is poisoned after eating my meat, I really can’t live with my conscience!”

The few elephants realized that the black girl who spoke was really a good-for-nothing without any spiritual power, so they believed Yun Chujiu’s words a little more. If her meat was poisoned, it really could not be eaten.

“Besides, we have a common enemy! The reason why we were pushed down is because we don’t like them keeping you demon beasts here! You’re free, and you belong to the Demon Beast Forest. How can you be kept here as human’s spiritual pets?”

“We told the truth, so we were hated by them! That disciple who fed you pushed us down to vent his anger! If you really kill us, then it would be the kinsmen who bear the pain and the enemy who rejoices!”

Su Yun, who was hiding in the back, was completely dumbfounded!

Putting aside whether Yun Chujiu was brave or not, how did she come up with these excuses?!

‘One set after another. To be honest, if I were a Mighty Elephant, I would’ve believed it.’ What she said was really deep and heartfelt, causing the beast to shed tears!

As expected, Yun Chujiu's words had touched the hearts of the Mighty Elephants.

What they could not bear the most was being imprisoned by others. This made a day felt like a year!

"My Lords elephants. There is a saying, 'It is never too late for the Demonic Beasts to take revenge'. If I were you, I would cultivate properly here. There are people waiting on me here, and the spiritual energy is still dense. Since I can't get out anyway, I might as well cultivate diligently! Opportunities are reserved for beasts who are prepared, don't you think so?"

When Feng Ming brought the two Beast Tamers over, he saw Yun Chujiu standing there with her small hands behind her back, babbling non-stop. Then, the Mighty Elephants kept nodding their huge heads, seemingly agreeing with Yun Chujiu's words...
