

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1960

Mo Fangqin cursed silently in her heart. This country bumpkin was simply daydreaming!

Although she was quite smart, there were some tricks that worked this time but wouldn't work the next time!

Not to mention the countless 1.5 billion, even earning another 1.5 billion was unlikely.

"Third sister, come, come, I'll read you to write. Let's draw a grand blueprint of the Mo family's development for grandfather," Yun Chujiu said excitedly.

Mo Fangqin cursed in her heart. I think you're drawing a big cake! ! Can this work? !

However, Mo Fangqin quickly changed her mind. The expression on her face changed from indifference to excitement. In the end, her hands began to tremble.

"Third sister, if you continue to tremble, this word will become an earthworm!" Yun Chujiu said with a laugh.

“Big Sister, why are there so many strange ideas in your head? !” Mo Fangqin felt that the country bumpkin was simply not human. How did these ideas come out?

Yun Chujiu smiled smugly. “Cheh! What’s The Big Deal? I can write 100 copies of such a plan without duplicating it!”

This fellow cursed in his heart. This kind of promotion method like buy one, get one free, or membership card was definitely the only one in the immortal essence continent. He was not afraid that the old Fox would not be tempted.

Yun Chujiu and Mo Fangqin modified and finally completed the plan.

“Third sister, what do you think? Do you think this plan will satisfy grandfather?”

“Big Sister, grandfather should be satisfied. However, aren’t you afraid that grandfather will kill the donkey? Your plan is very detailed. Grandfather can also let others handle it!” Mo Fangqin said worriedly.

“Third sister, don’t worry. Grandfather is greedy! He will not satisfy this plan. I am like that money tree. Grandfather is reluctant to cut it down.”

Mo Fangqin thought about it and felt that what Yun Chujiu said made sense. Who would kill a golden egg laying chicken? !

The next morning, Yun Chujiu hopped over to see Mo Xiaoting.

To her surprise, Mo Cheng was also there.

The reason why Mo Cheng had come so early was because of Luo Shi's idea, "Husband, that girl Fangcao is full of schemes. You should go and keep an eye on her. Don't let father be fooled by her again."

Mo Cheng felt that what Luo Shi said made sense, so he came early to keep watch.

Mo Xiaoting naturally knew what he was planning. However, ever since he heard Mo Cheng's words, he had already made up his mind to let Yun Chujiu marry him, so he did not say anything about Mo Cheng's actions.

"Greetings, grandfather and father," Yun Chujiu greeted the two with a smile.

Mo Cheng noticed the smile on Yun Chujiu's face and felt it was an eyesore. He scoffed, "You're about to get married, yet you still can't walk properly. Who would be interested in a daughter-in-law like you?"

“Wouldn’t it be better if you weren’t interested? I happen to be staying with my grandmother and grandfather for the rest of my life,” Yun Chujiu’s smile grew brighter.

“HMPH! In your dreams! Whether you marry or not, you still have to marry!” Mo Cheng said angrily.

Yun chujiu ignored him and said to Mo xiaoting, “Grandfather, I wrote something for you yesterday after I got back.”

Mo xiaoting nodded. He took the few pages from Yun Chujiu and began to read them casually.

Mo xiaoting frowned slightly when he saw the title, “Mo family’s business development plan”? This little girl’s tone was really arrogant!

Mo Cheng stretched his neck and saw the title as well. He pursed his lips, “Business Development Plan? Aren’t you afraid that the wind will fan your tongue? Dad, don’t waste your time. What useful things can she write? !”
