

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1966

Although Mo Fangqin did not believe him, she still followed Yun chujiu out of the Mo residence.

As a bodyguard, Hei Shi naturally had to follow her. Previously, he usually followed Mo xiaoting out, but this was the first time he followed the young miss out, so he felt a little uncomfortable.

However, the person he was following was someone who could show off. They had agreed to go to the grocery store, but the moment he left the Mo residence, he became a wild horse.

He wandered around and kept buying things. Mo Xiaoting had given her more than 10 million spirit stones anyway, so he had no intention of returning it. How could she ask for it back? No Way!

Yun Chujiu saw a rouge shop in front of them, so she brought Mo Fangqin in while Hei Shi waited outside.

This Rouge shop wasn't small, and there were many customers inside.

When Yun Chujiu and Mo fangqin were choosing, they heard a sharp voice say, "Hey! Are you that country bumpkin mo fangqin? This rouge shop belongs to our Luo family. You are not welcome. Get Out!"

Yun chujiu turned around and saw a girl in red looking at her with disdain. The girl's looks were not bad, but her sharp and mean look was really displeasing.

Mo Fangqin's expression changed. "Elder sister, this is mother's niece, the eldest daughter of the Luo family, Luo Yan."

Yun chujiu giggled. "Your name is Luo Yan? Why aren't you called Chenyu? If you were really that beautiful, it would be fine, but you look like you're playing around. You actually have the face to have Luo Yan. You're really Shameless!"

Yun Chujiu had suffered enough in the past few days. Now that she had finally met someone to vent her anger on, she naturally would not hold back. She could use this opportunity to shed all pretense of cordiality with the Luo family.

If it were not for the old White Lotus, Madam Luo, I would have already been married to the pretty boy. Damn it, it was time to settle the score!

The onlookers could not help but burst into laughter when they saw Yun Chujiu's novel and interesting words.

Luo Yan's face flushed red. "You B * Tch! How Dare You Mock Me! Kneel down and admit your mistake immediately, or I will not forgive you."

Yun chujia pouted. "You're really an interesting person. You scolded me first. If you want to admit your mistake, you should admit it to me."

"You! Mo Fangcao, if you don't admit your mistake, I'll tell aunt and let Aunt Punish you severely!" Luo Yan said fiercely.

Yun chujia sighed. "Sigh! A motherless child is so pitiful! Everyone, you probably don't know me, right? I am Mo Fangcao, the Mo Fangcao that had just returned from the Tian Yuan continent. You have all seen it yourself. Luo Yan is so arrogant, so what does she rely on? It's still her aunt, which is also the Luo Shi, my second aunt!

Speaking of which, it's truly a bitter tear. Go to Jin Chuan City and ask around. Second aunt has been extremely harsh on me, nearly causing me to lose my life! Thankfully, my grandfather and grandmother brought me over. If not, I would have been sold out by the Luo clan!

Forget it. If I really offended Luo Yan, second aunt might not torture me! Miss Luo, I'm afraid. I was wrong. Please spare me!"

"Mo Fangcao, you are spouting nonsense! My aunt is not like what you said!" Luo Yan immediately felt that things were not looking good when she saw everyone whispering.

“Miss Luo, you were the one who said just now that you wanted your aunt to punish me severely. Why are you not admitting to it now? Everyone, tell me, did she say that just now?” Yun chujia asked the onlookers.

The onlookers wished that the matter would blow up. One by one, they stretched their necks and shouted, “Yes, she did say it just now! We all heard it!”
