

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1969

"You can try! If you scold me one more time, see if I dare to make a move," Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

However, in Luo Yan's eyes, the Smiling Yun Chujiu was a devil. She didn't dare to gamble!

Although one's appearance could be restored after eating pills, which woman was willing to take such a risk? ! Luo Yan saw that the shopkeeper and the shop assistant of the Rouge Shop had also been beaten to the ground, so she cowered. "Ink fragrant grass, you're ruthless! I admit defeat today!"

Luo Yan cursed in her heart. B * Tch, just you wait, this matter isn't over!

"Admit defeat? You said it verbally and it's over? You caused me a huge mental injury, so you have to compensate me with spirit stones. Otherwise, I'll have to take action! "Don't worry, my drawing skills are very good. I will make the little bastard's drawing vivid and lifelike for you!"

Luo Yan almost fainted from anger!

No matter how good the drawing was, he was still a bastard!

Ah, no, no, no matter how good the drawing was, it could not be drawn on her face!

“You, how many Spirit Stones do you want?” Luo Yan gnashed her teeth in hatred.

“The three of us, five million each. But we are also considered relatives. I will give you a 99-81 discount. You just have to give me ten million! How about it? Not much, right?” Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

Luo Yan choked and fainted from anger!

Yun Chujiu was stunned. She fainted just like that? Her mental endurance was really not good!

“Shopkeeper, when your eldest miss heard that I asked for so little, she was so touched that she fainted. Since that’s the case, you can pay. If you don’t pay, I will draw a little bastard! I believe that your eldest miss will be quite pleasantly surprised when she wakes up.” Yun chujiu held a large kitchen knife and gestured at Luo Yan’s face as she said.

The manager of the Rouge shop was about to cry!

Pleasantly surprised?

If the eldest miss wakes up and finds that her face has been disfigured, she would probably have to kill them!

Forget it!

Just give her the spirit stones and let the Masters go to the Mo residence to settle the score!

Coincidentally, Luo Yan was here today to collect the profits of the Rouge shop during this period of time, so the manager of the Rouge shop really did have ten million spirit stones in his hands.

After Yun Chujiu received the spirit stones.., she cupped her hands and said to everyone, “Everyone, thank you for your kind words. If it weren’t for your support, if I didn’t feel the power of justice, I wouldn’t have dared to fight back. Thank you very much! Hei Shi, help me give everyone ten spirit stones each. I’ll treat everyone to tea!”

Hei Shi was still in a daze, and the young Miss had extorted ten million? Wasn’t this money too fast? However, wasn’t she afraid that the Luo family would come after her?

The moment Hei Shi heard Yun Chujiu’s words, he felt that his brain was even less capable!

Pay, pay money?

Was the young Miss Crazy? !

There were several hundred people surrounding them. Each of them had ten spirit stones, which meant that they had several thousand spirit stones. Wasn't this all going down the drain? !

However, he still obediently followed Yun Chujiu's instructions and gave the bystanders spirit stones. Yes, he paid out of his own pocket!

The melon-eaters felt that they were really too lucky today!

Not only did they get to watch a good show for free, but they even got spirit stones? Heavens, such a good thing could not be found even if one tried to look for it!

The melon-eaters immediately shouted, "Miss Fangcao, you are really generous!"

"Miss FANGCAO, don't worry. We have all seen who is right and who is wrong! The Luo family is taking advantage of their power to bully others. They are really too much!"

“That’s right. This is completely self-defense. There’s nothing wrong with it!”

Luo Yan had just woken up when she heard the words of the onlookers. She was so angry that she fainted once again!
