

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1970

Only then did heishi realize that the young miss was using the spiritual stones as hush money!

Ah, no, to be precise, it was to buy people's hearts!

No wonder Luo Yan was so angry that she fainted again. The young miss was using the Luo family's money to slap the Luo family's face. It was simply too despicable!

At this time, Luo Yan woke up again and said through gritted teeth, "Mo Fangcao, can you let go of Me Now?"

"Aiy, I'm sorry, I forgot that I was still riding on You!" Yun chujiu stood up from Luo Yan's body. It was unknown whether it was intentional or not, but she stepped on Luo Yan's right hand. Luo Yan grimaced in pain, in her heart, she hated Yun Chujiu to death.

After Luo Yan stood up, she covered her face and ran away.

The onlookers' eyes were full of gossip. "Luo Yan will complain when she goes back. The Luo family will not let it go easily."

"That's for sure. I think she will bring some people to the Mo residence to demand an explanation. There will be a good show to watch!"

"Although the Mo family is powerful, the Luo family is very powerful recently. This show will be exciting! I have to eat something quickly. I will wait in front of the Mo residence!"

"Yes, yes, I will go too!"

On the other side, Yun Chujiu was in a great mood!

"Third sister, did you see that? You have to come out frequently. In just a short while, we have earned ten million spirit stones. This is a good deal!"

Mo Fangqin's eyes twitched violently. This is not a deal, this is a scam!

“Third sister, take this one million! Don’t worry, follow me and I will definitely make you a rich woman in the future!”

“Hei Shi, you did well just now. Take these two hundred thousand spirit stones. Of them, I’ll give you a hundred thousand as a reward. The other hundred thousand will be used in the future.”

Mo Fangqin and Hei Shi were stunned by Yun Chujiu’s generosity!

Damn, this was too generous!

This was too terrifying!

Hei Shi’s monthly salary was only five hundred thousand. It was obvious how shocked they were!

“SIS, SIS, isn’t that too much?” Mo Fangqin was stunned for a long while. All these years, her monthly salary had been deducted by the Luo clan, so she only received 100,000 spirit stones a year. Suddenly, she received an additional million spirit stones, it felt like a dream.

“This is just a small amount of money. It’s not worth mentioning! I’m so poor that I only have money left!” Yun Chujiu said smugly.

“Big sister, although it’s good to earn money, the Luo family will not let it go. What if grandfather punishes you?”

“Don’t worry, since I dare to beat her, I have a foolproof plan! Let’s go to the grocery store.” Yun Chujiu said with a smile, not caring at all.

Mo Fangqin and Hei Shi could only follow her to the grocery store. The grocery store was not too far from the Rouge store, so the three of them soon arrived at the grocery store.

The name of the grocery store was also very easy to remember. It was Mo Ji’s grocery store. Yun Chujiu walked in with big strides.

The grocery store was quite big, but half of the area inside was where talismans were sold. The remaining miscellaneous items took up half of the space. It was likely that business was not very good, and there was not a single customer inside.

The shopkeeper of the grocery store was also a fat old man. When he saw Yun Chujiu and the other two enter, he came over to welcome them with his belly puffed out. Although he didn’t know Yun Chujiu and the other two, he did know Hei Shi’s bodyguard.

Yun chujie took out the token Mo Xiaoting had given her, "Shopkeeper, grandfather has handed this grocery store to me to manage. Can you give me a basic introduction?"
