

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1971

After the fat shopkeeper took the token and checked its authenticity, he smiled like a flower. "Miss Fangcao, Miss Fangqin, please take a seat! Yuan Bao, serve the tea!"

After Yun Chujiu and Mo Fangqin sat down, a waiter served the tea. The fat shopkeeper said with a bitter face, "Miss FANGCAO, as you can see, our grocery store's business is really poor!"

"It turns out that the sale of talismans is not bad. However, the price of the talismans at Luo's grocery store has been reduced recently. Each of them is 10% cheaper than ours. Therefore, this business is becoming more and more difficult!"

Yun chujiu nodded. "How's the grocery business?"

"The sales volume of the grocery store has always been average. Moreover, there are many people who bought the talismans at the opposite side and bought the groceries at the same time. Therefore, our Mo's grocery store is deserted!"

"By the way, What's your surname? How should I address you?" Yun Chujiu was already prepared for this. If it was a profitable store, Mo Cheng wouldn't have mentioned it.

"My surname is Pei."

Yun chujiu spat out the tea in her mouth, "Oh my God, I'm sorry. I'm really surprised."

Shopkeeper PEI had already expected this. If he hadn't been with the Mo family for so many years, Mo Xiaoting would not have made him a shopkeeper. To a businessman, this surname was indeed a little taboo.

Shopkeeper Pei could not help but feel embarrassed. He thought to himself, could it be that this Miss Fang Cao was also afraid of this? Could it be that she would not let him continue to be the shopkeeper of the grocery store?

"Shopkeeper PEI, bring the ledger over for me to take a look."

Shopkeeper Pei felt even more nervous when he saw Yun Chujiu asking for the ledger. He handed the ledger to Yun Chujiu with a trembling hand.

Yun chujiu could not help but frown. Could it be that there was something wrong with the ledger?

Yun chujiu looked through it once and did not find anything unusual. She could not help but ask in puzzlement, "Shopkeeper Pei, do you have something you want to tell me? Why are you trembling?"

Shopkeeper Pei wiped the sweat from his forehead. "Miss Fangcao, I, I know that my surname is a little taboo when doing business, but I have been working diligently all these years. I have not done anything wrong to the family head. "Now that business is bleak, I'm also very anxious, but my parents gave me this surname. There's nothing I can do about it!"

Yun chujiu finally came to a realization, she couldn't help but straighten her face. "Shopkeeper Pei, I'm really sorry. I lost my composure just now. Whether your surname is Pei or Zheng, this has nothing to do with business. I Won't hold it against you because of this. "As long as you listen to my arrangements, this grocery store will definitely earn a lot of money every day. Trust me."

Yun Chujiu's simple words touched shopkeeper PEI so much that tears welled up in his eyes. He was on the verge of howling!

Yun chujiu and Mo Fangqin looked at each other. Damn it, is this fat old man crazy? Why was he crying as he spoke!

"Miss Fangcao, based on your words, I, Pei Yongfa, will listen to you from now on! "You don't know that the shopkeeper of the Luo family, whose surname is Zheng, has always mocked me! "The other shopkeepers of the Mo family have also mocked me. In addition, the business of this grocery store is not good. I feel really aggrieved!"Shopkeeper Pei said with tears streaming down his face.

Yun chujiu could not help but want to laugh. It was such a big deal, yet this fat old man was still crying! What did a good business have to do with a surname? ! There was really no place to lie!

“Shopkeeper Pei, don’t be sad! I promised grandfather that the monthly income of our grocery store would be more than the combined income of uncle and the other nine stores. Do you have any good ideas?”

When shopkeeper Pei heard Yun Chujiu’s words, he sat down on the ground and howled even louder!
