

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1977

Mo Fangqin's face froze when she heard Yun Chujiu's words.

Irresponsible Words?

Since you know it's irresponsible, how dare you say it?

If there was one thing that country bumpkins were good at, it was framing! If this blame was really placed on Luo Shi, the Mo family would not have a good life!

Although Mo Xiaoting felt that Yun Chujiu was exaggerating, he did not think it was impossible. After all, the Luo family had risen too quickly.

Moreover, the Luo family had indeed tricked Mo Peng and Mo Chang. They even wanted a piece of Yun Chujiu's wedding. How despicable!

"Grandfather, also, when I went to the grocery store, shopkeeper Pei told me that the Luo family's grocery store had cut the talisman price by 10% and robbed us of our business! Think about it, what right did he have to cut the price by 10% ? Doesn't he want to make money?"

This means that the talismans the Zhao family gave him are definitely cheaper than the ones they gave us. Plus, the Luo family clearly wants to destroy our grocery store!

Most importantly, the reason why my father asked me to take over the grocery store in the morning was because second aunt gave him an idea. Think about it, the things that happened here are really scary!"Yun chujiu stopped talking. After all, the Old Fox's imagination was very strong, so she decided to let him think about it.

As expected, Mo Xiaoting was reminded of the Zhao family.

It seemed, the Luo family had not only benefited from Fang Cao's marriage, they had also benefited from it. They had gone too far!

Yun Chujiu Glanced at Mo Xiaoting's ashen face and silently gave herself a thumbs up. Now that the preparations were complete, it was time to get down to business!

"Grandfather, although I'm not as wise and thorough as you are, I feel that the Luo family is an ungrateful wretch. We can't let them stay! If we let them stay, they might one day bite us back."

"Besides, my uncle and the others are all kind-hearted people. Who knows, they might once again trick us. So, today, I've disregarded my safety and done something big!"Yun chujiu straightened her back and said righteously.

Seeing how serious Yun chujiu sounded, Mo xiaoting asked in confusion, "You did something big? What big thing? Did you go to the Luo family's shop and cause trouble?"

"Grandfather, am I such a brainless person? If I go to someone's shop and cause trouble, won't I be caught?!" Yun chujiu shook her head in denial.

"Then, what big thing did you do?" Mo xiaoting let out a sigh of relief. Although the Luo family was despicable, it was best to suppress their business. If they were to cause trouble on the surface, it wouldn't make sense.

"I didn't do anything. I just beat up Luo Yan twice and she voluntarily gave me 20 million high-grade spirit stones. That's all," Yun Chujiu said with a smile.

"Oh, you beat up Luo Yan? What? You beat up the young miss of the Luo Family?" Mo xiaoting couldn't believe his ears. This little girl beat up the young miss of the Luo family after leaving the house for half a day? Not only did she beat up Luo Yan once, but she actually beat her up twice?

"Yes, I beat up Luo Yan twice. Her face is swollen like a pig's head! Plus, I beat up the ten people she brought with her until they cried for their parents. Grandfather, don't you think I did the right thing?" Yun Chujiu said proudly.

Mo Xiaoting immediately flew into a rage, he slammed his hand on the table, "Nonsense! If you beat up Luo Yan, wouldn't the Luo family be in the right? They will definitely come looking for an explanation. If they ask me to hand you over, what do you think I will do then? !"
