

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1981

Everyone was stunned!

No matter how they looked at it, the Luo family owed the Mo family 10 million?

This Mo Fangcao had a glib tongue, inverting black and white!

Master Luo's face was ashen, "Master Mo, I'm not going to argue with a little girl like her. Tell me, how should we settle this matter?"

Mo Xiaoting knew that if he could settle this matter peacefully, he could just return 20 million spirit stones to the Luo family. As for whether he should apologize or not, the Luo family probably wouldn't bother too much about it.

But, was he going to return the money or not?

"Grandfather, although the Mo family doesn't lack spiritual stones, this is not a matter of spiritual stones. This is a matter of dignity! I am the Mo family's legitimate daughter. Why should I be scolded by the niece of a concubine? !

If I return the spiritual stones, people will think that the Mo family is afraid of the Luo Family! So, I will not return the spiritual stones!"Yun Chujiu said righteously. Want Money? No Way!

After hearing Yun Chujiu's words, Mo Xiaoting thought back to how he had been tricked by the Luo family, he said coldly, "Family head Luo, I think Fang Cao's words make sense. Fang Cao is the Mo family's daughter, so it's reasonable for her to ask for some spirit stones as compensation for being insulted by Luo Yan. Please leave!"

Family Head Luo's face turned ashen, "Family head Mo, is this your final decision? You should leave some leeway, otherwise, don't blame others for being heartless!"

Mo Xiaoting's face darkened, "Patriarch Luo, if you have something to say, just say it. Don't hide it."

"Patriarch Mo, as you know, the Zhao family has already cut off the Mo family's supply of Talismans.". "Originally, on account of our relationship, I planned to give you some of the talismans that came in. Since you are so heartless, then let's drop this matter!"Patriarch Luo sneered, he was certain that Mo Xiaoting would give in to his threats.

Hearing the Luo family head's words, Mo Xiaoting's heart wavered. After all, the talisman business was simply too profitable!

Mo Cheng Glared at Yun chujiu and said, "Father, hurry up and agree! The talismans are the most profitable. Apart from my father-in-law, who else can help us? !"

Yun chujiu pursed her lips, she said to Mo xiaoting, "Grandfather, Patriarch Luo is obviously lying to us! Think about it, his talismans came from the Zhao family. If he were to secretly sell them to us, would the Zhao family agree?"

So, when the time comes, he will use this as an excuse not to sell us the talismans. He is treating you like a fool!"! "I'm so angry!"

Mo xiaoting slapped the table, "Luo Pingsheng, you are going too far! Fang Cao is right. When the time comes, you will definitely find a reason to break your promise and not provide us with the talismans."

Luo Pingsheng, I saw everything you did. I just didn't want to expose you! Someone, send the guest out!"

Mo Cheng was so anxious that his forehead was covered in sweat, "Father, what are you talking about? Father-in-law is doing this for the Mo family's good. Don't listen to that unfilial daughter's nonsense! It's not like you don't know her..."

"You evil creature! Shut Up! If you continue to spout nonsense, I won't have a stupid son like you!" Mo xiaoting picked up the Teacup on the table and threw it at Mo Cheng.

Mo Cheng dodged and the Teacup fell to the ground and shattered into pieces. Mo Cheng saw Mo Xiaoting's anger and did not dare to say anything more. He looked at the Luo family head in an obsequious manner, "Father-in-law, don't be angry. My father..."

"Humph! The Mo family head has such a bad temper. I hope your Mo family doesn't beg for the Luo family's blessing! Yan 'er, let's go!" The Luo family head stood up and sneered.
