

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1993

Yun chujiu was also shocked when she saw the explosive situation. Although she expected that there would be a lot of people today, she didn't expect that there would be so many people.

Seeing that the shop was extremely busy, Yun Chujiu borrowed a few people from other shops to help.

When the sales closed on the third day, shopkeeper Pei was so happy when he saw the statistics!

"Miss Fang Cao, we actually sold 10,000,000 7-star lucky cards. That means we will earn at least 50,000,000! Oh My God! 50,000,000 in three days? Am I Dreaming? !"

When Mo Xiaoting heard the news, he was shocked speechless. How was this a business? This was simply stealing money!

Most importantly, this business could continue for a long time. Based on the speed at which he was making money, God, he might be able to return to the eastern continent soon!

"Grandfather, of course, making money is a good thing. But, when there are too many people, it's easy for things to go wrong. From today onwards, you will give me at least 50 guards to guard the grocery store."

“Of course, I will arrange for someone,” mo xiaoting nodded in agreement.

“Grandfather, although we are making a lot of money right now, it won’t be long before we start following the trend.”. “We can’t control the rest of the eastern continent and it won’t affect us much. But, if the Luo family successfully follows the trend, it will definitely distract us from our customers.”

“You have a point. But, if the Luo family wants to follow the trend, we can’t control them,” Mo Xiaoting said helplessly.

“Grandfather, you are too kind! We can’t control them openly, but we can stab them in the back! We are giving them a taste of their own medicine. Back then, the Luo family tricked my uncle and third uncle!” Yun Chujiu’s Black Lotus skill came online again.

“Stab them in the back? What do you want to Do?”

Yun chujiu gave him a cheeky kiss and Mo xiaoting nodded, “OK! I’ll leave this matter to you. Fangcao, grandfather didn’t misjudge you. As long as you are loyal to the Mo family, grandfather will hand them over to you sooner or later.”

Yun chujiu tactfully expressed her loyalty, but in her heart, she sneered. What right did a heartless family member like her have to make her work hard without complaint? !

In the next few days, the Mo family's Lucky Seven Star card was as popular as ever. Many people were envious.

Mo Peng and Mo Chang were both jealous and ashamed. They wished they could get a lucky card from the shop they were in charge of. But, they only thought about it. If they dared to poach someone from their own family, Mo Xiaoting would definitely kill them.

Seeing the Mo family making so much money, the Luo family naturally did not want to be left out. So, they immediately arranged for people to start selling the seven treasures lucky card at Luo Ji's grocery store.

The Luo family had a plan in mind. After all, Luo Ji's grocery store and Mo Ji's grocery store were opposite each other. They could easily lure the Mo family's customers over. It was simply too easy.

As expected, many people were excited to see the Luo family's promotional leaflet. After all, it was a lucky draw, so who wouldn't be the same? !

At this moment, someone in the crowd whispered, "The Luo family's reputation is not good. Who knows what tricks they will play when the time comes.".

When the Mo family held the first round of the lottery, didn't manager Zheng of the Luo's grocery store suspect that there was something wrong with the ball?

This meant that he had such a plan in mind. He would definitely tamper with the ball. "Who knows, the people who won the lottery were all arranged by them. We are just being played like monkeys!"

"That makes sense. Back then, they wanted to learn from Mo Ji and do the lottery sales. Now, they want to learn from Mo Ji and do the lucky card sales. How Shameless!"

"Besides, if the Mo family buys more people, the prize money will be higher!" The last grand prize was two million! There weren't many people in the Luo family. Even if they won the grand prize, it would only be a few thousand spirit stones. What's the point? "It's a waste of spirit stones and time."

Word spread like wildfire. Soon, everyone came to a consensus that the Luo clan wasn't something to be trifled with. Their lucky draw wasn't reliable, and only fools would go!
