

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 1995

Madam Luo's head buzzed and her face instantly turned pale. "Husband, didn't you say that you would never take in concubines again?"

Mo Cheng had yet to speak, Hong Xia said in a delicate and weak voice, "Sister, what you said is wrong. Isn't it normal for a man to have three wives and four concubines? Besides, we sisters heard that you were also a concubine back then. Why Can't we serve you?"

Madam Luo looked viciously at Hong Xia and said, "Slut, shut up!"

"Aiyoo, Langjun, sister is so scary. I nearly fainted from fright," said Hong Xia coquettishly as she leaned into Mo Cheng's embrace.

Mo Cheng saw Hong Xia's charm and beauty, and when he looked at Luo Shi's hideous face, he immediately had a choice, with a cold expression, he said, "Qiaoyun, I'm the head of the family. The matter of concubinage has already been settled. All I did was inform you. Quickly get someone to arrange a place for Hongxia and Hongyun. If you do not make the necessary arrangements, I will have the two of them stay in the study with me."

After Mo Cheng said that, he entered the Mo residence with his arms around her. He did not even glance at Luo Shi.

Luo Shi's face was pale. If not for Mo Fanghua's support, she would probably not have been able to stand properly.

Mo Fanghua gritted her teeth in anger. "Mother, don't worry. I will find an opportunity to kill those two bitches."

Luo Shi waved her hand. "Fanghua, don't do anything rash. Let me think about it carefully. They are just two bitches. All I need to do is use some means to chase them out."

Luo Shi's plan was pretty good. She felt that by using some means, Mo Cheng would hate those two concubines.

What she did not expect was that these two concubines were clearly well-versed in the private matters of the inner residence. Not only did Luo Shi fail to get rid of the two of them, it made Mo Cheng even more displeased with her. He did not even come to the main courtyard.

Luo Shi had also thought about killing the two of them, but she was worried that Mo Cheng would hate her, so she could not do anything about it.

Luo Shi was busy cleaning up the two concubines, so she could not care less about Yun chujie. She could not help but feel proud of herself. This tactic of encircling Wei to save Zhao was simply too effective.

Now, Yun Chujiu had become Mo Xiaoting and Old Madam Liu's favorite. She ate and used the best food, but she still did not feel at ease.

Back then, second elder Zhao had said some harsh words. He shouldn't have just been trying to scare Mo Xiaoting. Why hadn't he done anything?

Also, it was obvious that the old man, Luo Pingsheng, was a vengeful person. Yet, he had not made a move. Something was definitely up. He must be plotting something.

Yun Chujiu shared her concerns with Mo Xiaoting, mo Xiaoting did not seem to mind, "Fangcao, although the Zhao family is stronger than us, we still have the Mo family and the Ben family from the East Continent. They don't dare to do anything to us. You Don't have to worry too much."

"Grandfather, as the saying goes, water from afar can not quench the thirst of the current. Plus, we haven't had any contact with the Ben family for many years. If anything happens, the Ben family may not be able to help.". "So, the Zhao family may not be afraid of us. We should be on guard. It would be best if we send someone to keep an eye on the Zhao and Luo families."

Mo Xiaoting was about to speak when a guard rushed in to report, "Master, the second elder Zhao from last time is here again! Furthermore, he came directly with the betrothal gifts and the bridal sedan."

Mo Xiaoting was stunned for a moment before he sneered, "Is he planning to force himself into a marriage? This is outrageous!"

"Grandfather, don't be angry. Let's go and hear what he has to say," Yun Chujia said casually, but her heart tightened. The Zhao family had come with ill intentions; they must have made some preparations.
