

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 200

Yun Chujiu arrived at the Alchemy Room No. 2, inserted the jade token into the groove, and pushed the door open to enter.

Although it was called an alchemy room, it was actually divided into two rooms. The outside was an alchemy furnace, and the inside was a living room. Tables, beds, and other daily necessities were all available. Moreover, there was a Spirit Stone slot in the middle of the outer room. Once the Spirit Stones were stuffed in, the isolation formation could be activated. This way, the noise and medicinal fragrance in the room would not waft out.

Yun Chujiu was a stingy person. Naturally, she would not waste a single Spirit Stone, so she did not activate the isolation formation.

Yun Chujiu curiously picked up the alchemy furnace in the alchemy room and looked at it. Her mouth twitched. It was definitely not as high-class a furnace that the gigolo gave her. However, she should just use this as a start!

There was a pipe under the alchemy furnace that led directly to the underground, and there was a wrench on top of it. It must be the earth fire.

Yun Chujiu took out a part of the medicinal herbs in the bag and began to refine the hemostasis pill according to the steps.

First, she put in two portions of Stephania plant, then half the amount of lotus seeds, and then put in a portion of Tsingling bergenia rhizome.

Yun Chujiu began to seal and inject her spiritual power. Then, with a bang, the entire alchemy furnace exploded into two halves..

Yun Chujiu blinked her eyes and quickly pushed the door open to run out. She ran into the crowd who heard the noise and rushed over.

“Manager Gao! What kind of lousy alchemy room did you arrange for me? It’s defective! If I wasn’t smart, I would’ve been killed by the explosion!” Yun Chujiu was afraid that manager Gao would ask her to compensate, so she simply came to complain first.

Manager Gao frowned and walked into the alchemy room to check.

The ground was full of medicinal herbs, and the alchemy furnace had been blown into two halves!

Manager Gao was stunned. Could it really be that there was something wrong with this alchemy furnace? Looking at Yun Chujiu’s aggrieved and innocent look, he was even more certain in his heart. Perhaps it was the disciple who had caused the explosion last time, but the cracks were not obvious, and the disciples who checked did not find it. Once the earth fire was heated, the furnace exploded.

“Yun Chujiu, it was our alchemy room’s negligence this time. How about this? You go to Alchemy Room No. 12. We’ll give you a free day.” Manager Gao took out a jade token from his storage bag and handed it to Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu sighed. “Alright! I’m not uptight, so let’s do that!”

Yun Chujiu put the scattered medicinal herbs into the sack and went to Alchemy Room No. 12.

Once she entered the alchemy room, Yun Chujiu closed the door and patted her chest twice. It was a close call. She almost lost her fortune.

Anyhow, why did the alchemy furnace explode? Was it really caused by her? It should not be. She did everything according to the steps in the book!

Yun Chujiu started the alchemy again according to the steps.

First, she put in two portions of Stephania plant, then half the amount of lotus seeds, and then put in a portion of Tsingling bergenia rhizome.

She formed a seal and injected her spiritual power. Then, with a bang, the entire alchemy furnace exploded into two halves again..

Yun Chujiu was dumbfounded. However, when Manager Gao and the others arrived, this guy already had a face full of indignation!

“Manager Gao, did you do it on purpose? Why is it like this again? I worked hard to pick these herbs one by one! Now, I’ve wasted so much!”

Manager Gao picked up the fragments on the ground and looked at them. They were almost identical to the previous room. What was going on? Could it be that Yun Chujiu had really bad luck?

“I’ll change another room for you! I’ll give you another free day!” Manager Gao took out a jade token and opened Alchemy Room No. 13.

Manager Gao did not turn around and leave. Instead, he picked up the alchemy furnace and examined it carefully. Then he said, “This alchemy furnace is intact. You can use it without worry!”

Yun Chujiu cursed in her heart. It was in good condition. She was not at ease—if it exploded again, how would she excuse herself?!
