

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2011

"It turns out that everything you gave me is basically gone. However, I bought some more. Although the effects are not as good as the ones you gave me, they are still passable."

Di beiming originally thought that the alchemy skills of the immortal Yuan continent would be much better than that of the Tian Yuan continent. He did not expect that the actual situation was almost the same. Therefore, even if he spent a high price, the medicinal pills he bought were not as good as the heaven grade blood coagulation pills and sudden spirit pills that Yun chujiu refined.

When Yun chujiu heard di Beiming's words, she took out more than ten pots of medicinal pills from her storage ring and passed them to Di beiming.

The corner of di Beiming's eyes twitched violently. "Little Jiu, when did you store so many medicinal pills?"

"Prince Charming, you also know that I'm often trapped in strange places, so it's better to be prepared! Besides, Gou Weiba is a foodie. If he doesn't eat medicinal pills for a period of time, he will cause trouble." Yun chujiu said with disdain.

Di beiming frowned and said, "Gou Weiba is always a disaster. I will definitely help you find a way to solve it."

The grass in Yun Chujiu's dantian trembled. It was so scary, so scary. Fortunately, only a small part of that person's seal was broken. If it was broken, the Grass'life would be in danger!

Yun chujiu blinked her eyes and said, "Prince Charming, wait for me here. I will go back to the bedroom to get something for you."

Di beiming was very puzzled. According to Little Jiu's character, she would naturally bring good things with her at all times. Why would she still keep them in the bedroom?

After a while, Yun chujiu walked out of the bedroom, she handed a wooden box to di beiming. "Prince Charming, if you are seriously injured and the pills are not effective, you can open this wooden box. There are the pills that I have newly developed inside."

Di beiming took it and was about to open it, yun chujiu stopped him. "What's so good about pills? Just keep it. Also, keep these sacks of super-grade burst talismans. Don't be so stubborn. Use whatever tricks you can. The most important thing is to keep your life.

"Take me for example. Although my spiritual power is weak, I can use my black lotus skill to take revenge very quickly. So, you have to be flexible."

Hearing Yun Chujiu's words, Di beiming was stunned, he did not open the wooden box and directly put it into his storage ring. "Little Jiu, I know you have a lot of tricks up your sleeve, but don't try to be brave.

If you run into trouble that you can't solve, you can send a message to an feng. I will ask him to protect you in the dark."

Di beiming knew that with Yun Chujiu's intelligence, she must have guessed that an Feng was nearby, so he decided not to hide it.

"Okay, I got it. Sigh, if only brother Wu Ji, that idiot, had ascended earlier, we would have more helpers." Yun chujiu pouted and said.

"That idiot, it will probably take some time for him to ascend. However, in the western continent, with an feng protecting you, it should be enough," di beiming said.

Xue Wuji, who was cultivating in the Tian Yuan continent, sneezed twice. "Damn it!"! Who is talking bad about me behind my back? It must be that facial paralysis. I don't know if he found little sister Jiu "That damn facial paralysis actually made me lose face. When I ascend, I will definitely regain my face!"

Yun chujiu and di beiming chatted for a while. Although di beiming was reluctant to part with her., however, he could only leave. "Little Jiu, I can't come here often. Otherwise, I might implicate you. You have to be more careful. "Don't fall behind in your cultivation. No matter how powerful your schemes are, they are useless in the face of an absolute difference in strength. You Can't always take advantage of the situation..."
