

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2026

"Miss, the demonic beasts inside are all above level 31, at least equivalent to a human cultivator at the first level of the Lingxuan realm. "Although you can challenge those at a higher level, the gap between the Lingxuan realm and the spiritual venerable realm is like a gully. You'd better not take the risk," Hei Shi advised earnestly.

"This is the only way to have a challenge! "What's there to be afraid of? If not, I still have talismans. Blow It Up!" "Kitten, don't go in. You'll probably be scared to death when you see those high-level Demon Beasts." Yun Chujiu jumped down from the body of the wild wind blade leopard, she patted the wild wind blade leopard and said.

Although the wild wind blade leopard couldn't bear to barbecue meat, it was more afraid of the high-level demon beasts inside. It could only turn around and leave reluctantly.

"Little Cat, if you want to eat barbecue meat, I'll give you an idea! Since you're still a single leopard, can't you just find a fire-type Demon Beast as your wife? ! Whenever you want to eat barbecue meat, just let your wife barbecue it for you!" Yun chujiu shouted as she pulled her neck.

The wild wind blade leopard suddenly felt that it had opened the door to a new world. Aiyo, what the little girl said made sense. If I find a fire-type demon beast as my wife, everything will be solved. That's great!

Thus, Hei Shi and the others saw the wild wind-blade leopard leave with four legs!

The corners of everyone's eyes twitched violently. For the sake of a mouthful of roasted meat, they didn't even consider the difference in race. This might be the highest realm for foodies!

Everyone continued to advance into the fallen Phoenix Forest, and very soon, they met a wild wind-blade bear.

Hei Shi hurriedly said to Yun Chujiu, "Miss, although this wild wind-blade bear is a level 31 demon beast, its body is extremely strong and difficult to deal with. It's better if we work together to kill it."

Yun Chujiu waved her hand. "I'll try it first. If it doesn't work, you guys can attack again."

Hei Shi could only give a few more instructions before he watched the battle from the side with fear.

That wind-edge Violent Bear didn't put Yun Chujiu and the others in its eyes at all. Although its spiritual power wasn't as high as Hei Shi and the others, its skin was thick and it had the geographical advantage. If it couldn't beat them, it would just run away.

Unexpectedly, those people just stood by the side and didn't move, instead, a little girl with the lowest spiritual power walked up and said with a smile, "Little Bear, I see that your bones are very strange. You're a good sparring partner. Stay and be my sparring partner for a few days!"

The violent wind-blade bear opened its eyes wide and didn't react for a long time.

Was this little girl a lunatic or a fool?

"Little" Bear Bear?

Such a small one actually said it was small? was there something wrong with its eyes? !

Also, what the hell was a sparring partner? !

This time, Yun Chujiu didn't show off the small needles of spiritual power. While the violent wind-blade bear was still in a daze, several small needles of spiritual power went straight for the violent wind-blade bear.

The violent wind-blade bear obviously didn't care about the small needles of spiritual power either. It randomly used its claws to pull off a portion. Although the remaining small needles of spiritual power shot onto its body, they couldn't penetrate its hard fur at all, after the explosion, only a few tufts of its fur were burnt.

Hei Shi and the others became even more worried when they saw this. It seemed that the small spiritual needles could deal with low-level demon beasts, but its effect on high-level demon beasts was really limited. They didn't know if this little ancestor could use the intermediate physical transformation technique.

The violent wind-blade bear saw that a few tufts of its fur had been burnt. It flew into a rage out of humiliation and threw a few huge wind blades at Yun Chujiu.

Although Yun Chujiu had dodged the wind blades, she was in an extremely sorry state. A part of her hair had even been cut off.

This fellow was furious!

“F * ck! Little Bear, how Dare You Touch My Hair? If I don't shave you into a bald bear today, I won't Be Human!”
