

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2038

Yun Chujiu felt that she had struck it rich!

She originally thought that she had raised a useless piece of trash, but she did not expect that it would turn out to be an ancient divine bird — the Phoenix!

In the future, who would dare to provoke me?

Little Fellow, I'll Let My Little Phoenix kill you!

It was too awesome!

What three years? The Little Pretty Boy's enemy was nothing to him. Once the Little Phoenix appeared, he would burn to death!

Even if he did not burn him to death, he could still order all the Demonic Beasts to kill him!

TSK TSK, this fairy really has a discerning eye for birds. Who would have thought that such an ugly bird was actually a Phoenix? Hahaha! He made a fortune!

Just as this fellow was showing off, he heard Xiao Heiniaio use his spiritual sense to say, "Master, quickly retreat. I can't hold on for long!"

Yun chujiu stumbled and almost fell to the ground! One could imagine the difference in this guy's heart! It was like he thought he had picked up a luminous pearl, but was told that it was a glass ball!

This guy was very good at adjusting his mind. Although his heart was like a dog, he pretended to say, "Lord Phoenix, it's not fun here. Let's go somewhere else!"

Xiao Heiniaio was also used to posturing. It raised its neck with an arrogant look, but its speed was not slow. It brought Yun Chujiu and quickly rushed out of the encirclement.

The demonic beasts were affected by the pressure, so they did not dare to stop it. They could only watch as the man and the bird left.

However, they soon discovered that the pressure of the Phoenix was gone!

The demonic beasts were stunned at first, then they chased after Yun chujiu like crazy. The pressure of the Phoenix suddenly disappeared, which meant that it was just an immature little phoenix. If they ate it., they would definitely be able to make a qualitative leap in their spiritual power, and they might even activate their hidden ancient bloodline. They had to eat it!

At this time, Yun Chujiu had already put the little black bird into her spiritual beast bag, and she ran desperately. As she ran, she sent a voice transmission talisman to an feng, "Xiao Heinia, Tuhu! Run quickly!"

An Feng was shocked by the strange phenomenon just now. He cursed in his heart. Wherever Miss Jiu appeared, unimaginable things would happen!

After receiving Yun Chujiu's voice transmission talisman, he knew that Yun chujiu must have stirred up trouble again! Don't say anything else, run!

Although Yun Chujiu's movement technique was very fast, the trees here were densely packed, so she couldn't run fast at all. The Demon Beasts quickly shortened the distance between them and Yun Chujiu.

Yun Chujiu didn't care about the consequences. She took out the superior-grade sudden rupture talisman and threw it behind her, killing one by one!

Those demonic beasts didn't expect this pervert to have so many superior-grade burst talismans. They were blasted until they cried out in pain. Although their bodies were strong, they were still blasted until they bled profusely.

Yun chujiu stole a glance and couldn't help but curse in her heart. What the F * ck! These demonic beasts' bodies were really strong. They didn't even kill a few after such an explosion. It seemed that she had to learn a few more powerful talismans as soon as possible.

Although Yun Chujiu could stop the demonic beasts, she couldn't stop the demonic birds. Several demonic birds started to throw fireballs at Yun Chujiu. Fortunately, this fellow had the fire-repelling pearl, so it hurt a little when it was hit, so it didn't burn to death.

But in this way, the demonic beasts behind caught up.

"Xiao Hei, can you pretend to be a phoenix again?"

"Master, I borrowed a trace of Phoenix divine aura from the Nirvana Pearl just now. Now that my divine aura is exhausted, I can't maintain the suppression of the Phoenix Anymore!" Xiao Heiniaosaid dejectedly. It also wanted to pretend for a while more., but it could only think about it.
