

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2040

An Feng saw that it was di beiming and finally heaved a sigh of relief. Although he did not know why di beiming would rush over, he had to admit that it was fortunate that di beiming had rushed over. Otherwise, he and Yun Chujiu would have lost their lives today.

Demonic Beasts had an instinctive sense of danger. When they saw that Di beiming had defeated the demonic beasts with just a few moves, they looked at each other and could only escape unwillingly.

Yun chujiu was about to say a few words of thanks when she saw di Beiming's expression turn cold. He glared at her fiercely, "I'll settle the score with you when we get out!"

Yun chujiu shrank her neck. It was over. The Pretty Boy was angry!

An Feng was even more miserable. He was already heavily injured. When he was swept by di Beiming's cold gaze, he almost fainted! Oh No, oh no. His Excellency was angry. He was going to be punished.

An Feng was seriously injured, and he should have recuperated for a while before setting off. However, when he saw di beiming's gloomy expression, he did not dare to delay. He wished that he could grow wings and fly as fast as possible.

Of course, there was an even worse case, and that was the Xiao Heiniao.

The anxiety in this fellow's heart could not be described with words. He was worried that his black-hearted master would settle the score in the future, and he was even more worried that di beiming would tear him into pieces. Oh God, the bird's life was in danger!

Di beiming walked at the front, his body emitting a cold aura. Wherever he passed by, the trees began to wither at a speed visible to the naked eye. It was obvious that he was injured by the murderous aura.

Yun chujiu and an Feng looked at each other, and they could not help but shrink their necks. The two of them did not even dare to make too much noise as they were afraid that di beiming would take the opportunity to teach them a lesson.

At this moment, the sky had already started to darken. Yun chujiu shamelessly went to di beiming's side and said, "Prince Charming, it's already dark. Should we find a place to rest for the night?"

Di beiming snorted coldly and ignored her as he continued to walk forward.

Yun chujiu secretly curled her lips. Bah! On account of you saving this great aunt, endure it!

Just as Yun chujiu was cursing in her heart, she saw di beiming casually hit a few trees with his palm. The thick trees fell to the ground.

Yun chujiu secretly glared at di Beiming's back. F * ck! ! This pretty boy's temper was getting weirder and weirder. Why was he venting his anger on the trees? ! He didn't know how to take care of the environment at all. Bad Review!

Just as this guy was cursing in his heart, di beiming turned around and snorted, "What are you still standing there for? Didn't you want to Camp?"

Yun Chujiu was stunned and said flatteringly, "Prince Charming, I knew you were the best! So you brought these trees down to make room for Camp!"

As he spoke, he took out a chair and placed it beside di beiming, "Prince Charming, please sit down and rest. I will prepare dinner."

Di beiming snorted and ignored her. However, he sat on the chair.

An Feng fell to the ground with a thud. He had been walking for such a long time with his heavy injuries. It was almost killing him! He could finally rest.

Yun chujiu started to prepare dinner. Actually, she did not need to prepare anything. There were all kinds of delicacies in this guy's storage ring. It filled the entire table.

When they were eating, this guy was naturally very attentive. An Feng felt as if he had returned to the time when His Majesty and Miss Jiu first met. At that time, Miss Jiu was always so thick-skinned. Cough, cough, she would cause trouble.

Although di beiming accepted Yun Chujiu's attentive service, his face was still cold. Other than snorting coldly, he did not say a word to Yun chujiu.
