

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2052

One could imagine the anger in Yun Chujiu's heart. The Mo family was really too cold-hearted. How much did they dislike the Mo Family? Why would they treat the ye family like this? !

Housekeeper he saw that Yun chujiu did not speak, so he did not dare to say anything. His heart was in a mess. This Miss Fang Cao was the best at causing trouble. Wouldn't she turn the Mo family upside down this time? !

"Housekeeper he, do you know that you are planning to use an empty coffin to deceive me?" Yun chujiu asked as she stared at housekeeper he.

Housekeeper he did not dare to betray Mo Xiaoting. He could only swallow his anger, "Miss, I was blinded by the lard and did something stupid. Please punish me."

"You are my grandfather's man. Let Me Handle You! However, you have been disrespectful to my mother. You Can't Let This Go! Go Dig up the gravestone and carry it back to the Mo residence," Yun Chujiu said coldly.

Housekeeper he almost fell to the ground!

Carry, carry it back?

This tombstone weighed at least 400-500 kilograms. If he carried it back to the Mo residence, he probably wouldn't be able to straighten his back the next day.

However, he knew Yun Chujiu's character. If he didn't carry it, Yun Chujiu had plenty of ways to make him submit. Therefore, he had no choice but to get someone to dig up the tombstone and tie it on his back with a rope.

"You guys, put the soil here in a sack. Each of you will carry a sack!" Yun chujiu said to the guards.

Seeing that housekeeper he had given in, the guards did not dare to object and began to dig.

Housekeeper he was about to cry. He thought that Yun chujiu must have done it on purpose, but he did not dare to leave first. He could only wait by the side with a sad face.

Yun chujiu kept her eyes on the dug-up grave. There were no scattered bones or other things inside. If someone had really robbed the grave, at most, they would have stolen some funerary objects, how could the coffin and the corpse be missing?

Even if the corpse had been eaten by a demon beast, there shouldn't be no bones left. To take a step back, even if the corpse was dragged to another place to be eaten, what about the coffin?

The Mo family wouldn't be willing to let mother use a good coffin. How could someone steal a coffin? !

Yun Chujiu said in her heart, "Mother, Little Jiu will bring you back to the Mo family. Don't worry, I will definitely help you get back what you've done! Whether it's the Mo family or the ye family, I will not let go of anyone who has wronged you in the past!"

After a while, the few guards filled the sack with soil and obediently carried it up, waiting for Yun Chujiu's orders.

Yun chujiu snorted coldly and walked at the front. Hei Shi and the other three followed behind her, while housekeeper he and the guards walked at the back, panting.

As soon as they entered Feng Li City, this strange group immediately attracted the attention of many people.

Someone was quick-witted. When he saw the words on the tombstone, he whispered, "This seems to be the tombstone of the Mo family's Madam Ye, which is also Miss Fang Cao's mother's tombstone. Why did they carry the tombstone back?"

"What's in those people's sacks? It seems to be soil. What are they trying to do?"

“When I passed by that place before, I saw that Madam Ye’s grave seemed to have been dug up by someone.”

“TSK tsk, the dignified mo family’s young madam was actually buried in such a desolate place. Moreover, her grave was even dug up by someone. Miss Fang Cao will definitely not let this matter rest.”

“Is this for real? Isn’t the way the Mo family handles things a little too unethical? The Ye family’s Madam is Mo Cheng’s official wife, yet there’s not even a corpse left behind. This is too tragic!”
