

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2053

Housekeeper he felt his head buzzing when he heard everyone's finger pointing at him. It's over, it's over. The head of the family would definitely vent his anger on him. Perhaps this housekeeper had done his best.

The group of people quickly arrived outside the Mo residence, Yun Chujiu said coldly, "Housekeeper he, you guys pour all the soil here and then erect the tombstone. I reckon that no one would dare to secretly dig out my mother's grave outside the Mo Residence's main gate!"

Housekeeper he directly laid on the ground and put up the ye family's tombstone outside the Mo Residence's main gate?

Never heard of anyone putting up a tombstone outside their main gate? !

Oh My God, you're going to heaven!

Housekeeper he got up from the ground and carefully said, "Miss Fangcao, this, this, you'd better go see the Patriarch first. I believe the patriarch will handle this matter properly."

Yun Chujiu raised her hand and gave housekeeper he a slap, "You deceitful slave! You actually tried to fool me with an empty coffin and now you want me to go find grandfather. Did grandfather tell you to do that? ! Put up the tombstone right now or I'll kill you."

Housekeeper he was originally glad that Yun Chujiu didn't punish him because she asked him to carry the tombstone, but now he realized that she was waiting for him here!

He was on the verge of breaking down. He completely believed that Yun chujiu would really dare to kill him and that Mo Xiaoting wouldn't do anything. After all, Miss Fang Cao was now the Mo Residence's cash cow.

Housekeeper he weighed the pros and cons and could only grit his teeth as he led the guards to build a grave outside the Mo residence.

Yun chujiu took out the offerings and laid them out before burning some paper money, as she burned, she cried, "Mother, I'm unfilial! I've let you down! I'm so sorry that you can't even find your bones. Don't worry, if anyone dares to touch your grave in the future, I'll skin them and whip their bones. I'll make sure they die a horrible death!"

Of course, Mo Xiaoting had heard about the commotion outside. The only reason he did not step out to stop it was because he was trying to figure out how to end it.

This incident was indeed the second brother's doing. It was no wonder that fangcao would do something so extreme.

Before Mo Xiaoting could think of a solution, another guard came over to report, "Master, something bad has happened. Second Master has reprimanded Miss Fangcao. Miss Fangcao is going to hang herself at the door!"

Mo Xiaoting felt his head buzzing and he couldn't help but blame Mo Cheng in his heart. This matter was already difficult to handle, yet this idiot had come to cause trouble again. He was a complete failure!

Mo Xiaoting had no choice but to brace himself and walk out the front door, Mo Cheng was shouting angrily, "Unfilial daughter! How dare you erect a grave outside the front door! You are simply making trouble! It would be great if you were dead! Our Mo family doesn't have someone as unfilial as you!"

On the other side, Yun Chujiu had already tied up the rope and was crying, "My mother's bones are all gone and my father is still scolding me for being unfilial. What's the point of me living? I'll just die!"

The onlookers couldn't stand it anymore!

What was the Mo family doing? !

Their mother's bones were all gone, and now they were forcing their daughter to die. Mo Cheng was simply a heartless dog! No wonder he was cheated on by Luo Shi. He deserved it!

“Second brother! Shut Up! Go back to your own courtyard!” Mo Xiaoting said angrily.

“Father, you have no idea how this unfilial daughter...” Mo Cheng defended himself.

“I told you to shut up, don’t you understand? Get In!”

Mo Cheng noticed Mo Xiaoting’s expression was dark, so he glared at Yun Chujiu before turning around and entering the Mo residence.
