

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2057

"This, of course this is my intention. I'm just following orders." Manager Liu saw that Yun Chujiu's large kitchen knife was about to fall down again, so he quickly said.

"Oh? My intention? Our shop is worth at least ten million high-grade spirit stones, and I want to buy it for one hundred thousand spirit stones? Isn't this a bit too unscrupulous? The Mo family and the Ben family are a big family, how could they act like this? Humph, it must be you, this dog servant, lying!" Yun Chujiu said angrily.

"This, this is really my master's idea, how could a mere manager like me dare to make decisions without permission?!"

After Yun Chujiu turned off the recording stone.., then, she patted manager Liu's face with the big kitchen knife and said, "B * Tch Liu, are you thinking that after I let you go, you will complain to me? And then I will force my grandfather to punish me? HMM?"

Manager Liu's eyes flickered. "Miss FANGCAO, you, you are thinking too much. I deserve it. How would I dare to complain?"

"Humph! To tell you the truth, if I dare to beat you, I am not afraid of you complaining. Come, I will let go of you now. You can complain and see what I will say." As Yun Chujiu spoke, she really let go of manager Liu, she slowly returned to her seat.

Manager Liu's expression immediately changed, "Little B * Tch, how Dare You Treat Me Like This? Just you wait!"

After speaking, manager Liu took out a voice transmission talisman. Although Yun Chujiu and Mo Xiaoting did not know what he said, they could tell from his expression that he was definitely adding fuel to the fire.

Not long after manager Liu put down the Voice Transmission Talisman, Mo Xiaoting's Voice Transmission Talisman began to tremble.

After mo xiaoting sent his spiritual sense into it.., he heard the displeased voices of the five families' uncles, "Xiaoting, manager Liu may be a servant, but he is still a member of our family. When you beat up a dog, you still have to look at the owner. What do you mean by that? Tell that Fang Cao to apologize to manager Liu. Otherwise, HMPH!"

Mo xiaoting was so angry that he gritted his teeth. Tell the owner to apologize to a servant? Could it be that the master of Guangshun branch wasn't even as good as his own servant?

But, if he didn't do as he was told, his family would definitely not let this matter rest. What should he do?

Just as Mo Xiaoting was in a difficult situation, Yun chujiu jumped to his side and whispered into his ear. Mo Xiaoting nodded his head repeatedly, then, she picked up the voice transmission talisman and said, "Uncle Wu, there might be some misunderstanding. Manager Liu said that he wanted to use 100,000 high-grade spirit stones to buy our shop, which is worth tens of millions of spirit stones. He even said that it was your idea. This is blatant slander!

How could you make such an unreasonable request? Isn't this a slap to your face? If word of this got out, it would definitely damage the family and your reputation. That's why Fang Cao taught manager Liu a lesson.

Uncle Wu zu, if you really made this request, our Guangshunzhi wouldn't say a word. After all, we have already offered up our seven star Lucky card business. We don't need this shop."

After a while, Mo Xiaoting and manager Liu's voice transmission talisman did not respond. It was obvious that the family had not decided what to do.

Yun chujiu couldn't help but sneer. This was a classic example of being a whore and building a monument. How Shameless! She was certain that the family would scold manager Liu and push the blame onto manager Liu.

Sure enough, after a while, manager Liu's voice transmission talisman began to vibrate.

Manager Liu's proud face quickly turned into fear and trepidation. After putting down the voice transmission talisman., he squeezed out a smile and said, "Fourth Master, Miss Fangcao, I was blinded by lard just now, so I just spouted nonsense. We will pay as much as that shop should be paid."
