

The Yun Family's Ninth Child is an Imp! Chapter 2060

Yun chujiu was no longer in the mood to watch the piglets jump around. She turned around and entered the house. Since her spiritual power had been exhausted, the piglets had also dissipated.

What Yun Chujiu did not know was that after the piglets' spiritual power had been exhausted, they did not dissipate immediately. Instead, they gathered into a purple piglet.

The Purple Piglet was even more agile. It hopped around for a while before dissipating.

Yun chujiu knew nothing about this. After the Piglet returned to the room, it continued to cultivate.

A few days later, manager Liu was up to something again. He wanted to get back at him.

After Yun Chujiu found him, she did not say anything. She took out the recording stone and a familiar smell and formula came out from it.

Manager Liu was so angry that he was about to Puke. "You, you, didn't you erase the content last time? Why is there more? You Lied to me!"

Yun chujiu shook her finger at him. “Wrong! I didn’t lie to you. I did erase the content on that recording stone! But I found that I still have another recording stone. Don’t you think it’s magical?”

Magical your ass!

Manager Liu wanted to strangle Yun Chujiu to death, but Yun Chujiu had something on her, so he could only admit defeat. In the end, not only did he compromise, but he also spent another one million spiritual stones to erase the content on this recording stone.

In the following period of time, manager Liu learned from his mistakes and was very honest. He had thought it through. A strong dragon would not suppress a local snake, and he was not afraid of settling accounts. When he found an opportunity, he would deal with that little slut.

Finally, the seven star Lucky Card business was completed. For some reason, manager Liu did not buy the Mo family’s grocery store. Instead, he bought a store in another town and began to operate the seven star Lucky Card.

Not only that, he quickly opened a lot of 7-star Lucky Card stores in the Western continent. It could be said that he had made a fortune.

Mo Xiaoting’s red-eyed illness was acting up. He sighed all day long. The money had originally belonged to them, but now, it had been taken by the Mo family for free. It was practically daylight robbery.

“Grandfather, it doesn’t matter if I give them the 7-star lucky card business. I have plenty of ways to earn money, but it’s too cowardly to just swallow it,”yun chujiu added fuel to the fire.

“Sigh! Even if we can’t swallow it, we have to swallow it. Do you have a way to get justice?”

“It’s impossible to get justice. After all, we are too weak, but we can still take advantage of this opportunity to get some benefits,”yun chujiu said as she blinked.

Mo Xiaoting’s eyes lit up, “What benefits?”

“Grandfather, I heard that although people from the eastern continent can travel between the two continents, people from the western continent are not allowed to enter and leave the eastern continent. is that a Rule?”

“That’s true,”Mo Xiaoting said with a disappointed expression. In a way, he wasn’t as good as manager Liu. At least, manager Liu was allowed to enter and leave the two continents, but he wasn’t.

“Grandfather, we can make a fuss about this. Tell the family to get some good stuff from the eastern continent and we will split the profits 50-50,”Yun Chujiu said with a smile, the people of the East continent did not want to do business like this. Since the people of the West continent could not do business like this, it was a good opportunity for her.

Mo Xiaoting was stunned for a moment before he was overjoyed. Yes, this was such a simple way to make money. Why did no one think of it? !

Everyone thought that the two continents were incompatible. As long as there was a way to communicate, this idea could be turned into reality.

Moreover, this kind of business had one advantage, which was that it could ask for sky-high prices!
